MARTHA FIRESTONE FORD

OWNER AND CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Martha Firestone Ford provides great stewardship for the Detroit Lions as Owner and Chairman, succeeding her husband, William Clay Ford, passed away on March 9, 2014 after serving as the sole owner of the franchise for the past 50 years.

Mrs. Ford has been affiliated with the Lions since her husband purchased the club in 1963. Mr. Ford's ownership grew into a deeply-rooted tradition of family stewardship and involvement that includes multiple generations of the Ford family. Mrs. Ford now proudly honors that tradition with firm leadership and stability.

Born in Akron, Ohio, Mrs. Ford is the granddaughter of one of America's great automotive industrial icons, Harvey Firestone. She graduated from Vassar College in 1946 with a bachelor's degree. After getting married in 1947, Mr. and Mrs. Ford located to the Detroit area and became active members of the metro Detroit community.

In addition to being the Owner and Chairman of the Detroit Lions, Mrs. Ford currently serves on the board of The Henry Ford Health System. She has held leadership positions with many organizations, including The Merrill Palmer Institute, The University Liggett School, and The Children's Home of Detroit. She was also the founder and longtime board member of The Maple Grove Institute.

Joining Mrs. Ford on the board of the Detroit Lions are her three daughters, Martha Ford Morse, Sheila Ford Hamp, Elizabeth Ford Kontulis, and her son, William Clay Ford, Jr. She also has 14 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

A TRIBUTE TO THE LEGACY OF WILLIAM CLAY FORD

The following article was published on Detroitlions.com following the passing of Lions Owner and Chairman William Clay Ford on March 9, 2014. Mike O'Hara covered the Lions for 35 years for the Detroit News and now writes about the Lions on Detroitlions.com. Through the years, O'Hara spent time on several occasions interviewing Mr. Ford about the Lions and, on occasion, other off-beat topics.

Mike O'Hara
Columnist, Detroitlions.com

William Clay Ford never wanted to take away as much as one milli-watt of the spotlight that shone on the Detroit Lions team that he owned for more than a half century.

Win or lose, good times or bad, in whatever direction the rollercoaster that is the NFL season took his coaches and players, Mr. Ford was content to let them enjoy the ride. He might have been the owner and ultimate boss, but they were the stars.

It is a tribute to Mr. Ford's decency and caring for his team and the people who worked for him that smiles and warm feelings share company with the sadness over the passing of a man whom the public would have been well served to have known better as a human being.

He became a director of the Lions in 1956 and became sole owner in 1963 when he bought out a group of local businessmen for a reported $4.5 million. He assumed ownership in 1964.

As owner, he had a long ride – 50 full seasons and the beginning of an offseason of a 51st – and sometimes a rough ride. The game changed in so many ways. Passing offenses took over on the field. Marketing and advertising sent revenues skyrocketing. Along with that, free-agency changed how teams were built and how much players were paid.

What never changed was how deeply Mr. Ford cared about the people who worked for his franchise, his willingness to remain in the wings and let them do their jobs, and his passion for the game.

I have covered the Lions since 1977, when I was assigned to the beat by The Detroit News, and as a columnist since 2012 for the team's website, Detroitlions.com. In that span, I have been privileged, along with some colleagues of the past, to have had numerous conversations and interviews with Mr. Ford.

And before being assigned to cover the Lions, as a reporter at The News I heard stories about Mr. Ford that gave insight to his personality. What follows are stories from those experiences – anecdotes, humor and incidents that portray Mr. Ford as owner and human being:

QUIET HIGHLIGHT

It was the final minutes of the Lions' 38-6 win over the Dallas Cowboys in the divisional playoffs of the 1991 season, and the Pontiac Silverdome was a giant party pit. Barry Sanders had put an exclamation point on the victory with a 47-yard stop-start run through the Cowboys' defense for the game's final touchdown.

Head coach Wayne Fontes and his players were exchanging high fives and hugs in front of the bench when Fontes noticed one person standing just beyond the end zone, taking in the scene with a small smile of satisfaction.

It was Mr. Ford, and Fontes sent an assistant over to bring the owner over to share in the celebration. After all, it was his team – but he didn't want to intrude on his players' party.

Mr. Ford's association with people was underscored by Fontes' appearance at the press conference after the 1996 season, when Mr. Ford announced that Fontes had been fired.

Fontes attended, and when Ford was done making the announcement, Fontes stepped to the podium – dressed in a leather Lions team jacket.

"Fired?" Fontes said with a smile. "What do you mean fired?"

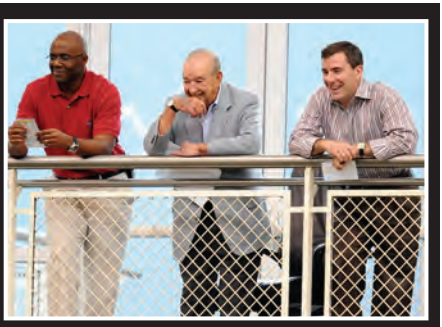
And with that, Fontes spoke passionately about how great it was working for Ford.

INFLUENCE

Mr. Ford had it from his name alone – a grandson of Henry Ford – and his position with the Ford Motor Co.

He used it to better the NFL, and the occasional franchise that needed help.

He was part of a small group of owners who, along with NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, spent many long nights hammering out the details of the merger between the NFL and AFL. Much further behind the scenes, he helped franchises that were struggling financially.



During his tenure a decade ago as head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs, coach Dick Vermeil interrupted the question-answer session to volunteer a role Ford played with the Eagles when Vermeil was head coach (1976-82).

There were times, Vermeil said that day, when he didn't know if the franchise would remain financially viable until Ford used his connections to help finance its debt.

Vermeil also echoed that day what many coaches and NFL executives have said – most recently former Bucs and Colts coach Tony Dungy. If you get a chance to work for the Lions, take it, because of the way Ford treats employees and allows them to do their jobs without meddling.

CARING TOUCH

Although he was not a meddlesome owner, Mr. Ford kept in close touch with everything that happened with his staff. That included their families.

He underwent several heart procedures over the years, and he used his experience when he got wind that an assistant coach's son was about to undergo a heart procedure.

Mr. Ford called the young man at the hospital and explained to him what he was about to go through, and that he shouldn't be alarmed by any soreness he felt when he awoke from the operation. Any pain was from muscles and other tissue affected by the operation. His heart would be fine. And it was.

THE QUOTES

He didn't seek out the media, but he didn't mince words when he had something to say. And his zingers hit the target.

For example:

After a bad loss at old Tiger Stadium: "We weren't only outplayed. We were outcoached."

To wide receiver Brett Perriman, who shouted over to him during practice about wanting a raise: "Wrong pants," Mr. Ford shot back, pulling an empty hand out of his pocket. No one laughed harder than Perriman.

On what he told former coach Daryl Rogers after a late-night meeting: "We're losing and we're boring."

On the officiating in a game in which several bad calls went against the Lions: "No comment. The officiating was so bad that I'm afraid I might say something I'll regret." OK, we got the drift.

Calling agent Jerry Argovitz a "Machiavellian leech of the highest rank" during a contract holdout by Billy Sims.

He broke the ice in his greeting to Barry Sanders when the two met for the first time a few years after Sanders' retired on the eve of the 1999 season. Sanders was going to attend the Lions' home game that week. "Are you doing anything Sunday?" Ford said to Barry.

LIFE WITH THE STARS

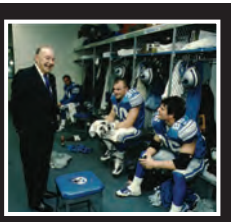
Mr. Ford's public profile was as low as possible for a man of his position and family name, but he was close friends with people such as President John F. Kennedy, Bob Hope and Frank Sinatra and his "rat pack."

On a visit to Detroit in the 1990s, Sinatra called Mr. Ford for a dinner recommendation. Barbara and Frank wound up hosting a dinner together with Mr. Ford and his wife, Martha. The restaurant still boasts the event on its website.

A PERSONAL VIEW

I got to spend most of a day with Mr. Ford in his office at Ford Motor Co. World Headquarters in Dearborn for a long profile that appeared in The Detroit News in the 1970s.

It was a fascinating experience. He spoke about visiting his grandfather, Henry, at his Fairlane estate and driving miniature cars that were built for when the grandkids visited.



He talked about his passion for music and playing the drums to records. His favorite genre at the time was Country and Western.

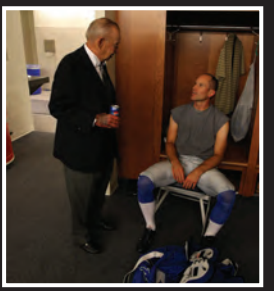
He drove a Jaguar long before the British automaker was bought by the Ford Motor Co. When I asked him about it, he smiled and said he liked to see what the competition was making. What he really meant was, he liked driving a Jaguar.

In short, Mr. Ford was an easy man to talk to.

Many years after that day, I informed him one day at a training-camp practice that I had decided to leave The News. Later that day, he walked by when I was talking on my cellphone.

"Phoning it in already?" he needled.

CHARITY BEHIND THE SCENES



The Ford family name is associated with just about every major philanthropic institution in Southeast Michigan, but they are far from the only groups that have benefitted from Mr. Ford's charity.

He reportedly once paid all costs to have the Detroit Public School League's basketball games televised for a full season. There was one stipulation, and it had nothing to do with having his name mentioned prominently. Just the opposite.

He asked that his name not be mentioned. He didn't want to take any credit for it.

So now you know, if you hadn't already, about this example of charity and many others from a man who let the light shine on others.

WILLIAM CLAY FORD, JR.

VICE CHAIRMAN

William Clay Ford, Jr. has made a positive and lasting impact on the Detroit Lions since assuming the post of vice chairman in February 1995. He remains focused on helping his family create a winner in the present and on ensuring the team's success well into the 21st century – both on and off the field.

In addition to his important contributions to the Lions over the years, Ford's value to the entire National Football League was recognized in August 2013 when he was appointed to the NFL Broadcast Committee, perhaps the league's most important and prestigious business committee due to its negotiation of national media contracts.

Ford shares in his family's longtime commitment to the Lions and a burning passion to win. That passion dates back to 1934 when his father, William Clay Ford, attended the first Lions' game ever played in Detroit as a child. Mr. Ford would later purchase the team as sole owner in 1963. Now, Ford Jr.'s mother, Martha Firestone Ford, has assumed ownership of the team with great pride following Mr. Ford's passing on March 9, 2014.

Like his entire family, Ford wants nothing less than for the Lions to become a premier franchise in the NFL, and he knows that means delivering a championship to the fans.

To see Ford's influence, one has to look no further than Ford Field in downtown Detroit and the team's headquarters and practice facility in Allen Park. Both are considered among the best facilities in all of sports, and were shaped by Ford's resolve for the Lions to be a leader in the NFL.

Ford's dedication and commitment to the fans was never more evident than when he spearheaded stadium negotiations that led to the 1996 decision to build Ford Field. Due largely to his perseverance, the Lions struck a deal with the city of Detroit and Wayne County that established the foundation to return to downtown Detroit in 2002.

Along with moving the Lions to downtown Detroit, Ford has provided a world-class practice facility to complement the team's stadium. The $36 million team headquarters in Allen Park, which opened in April 2002, provides the ideal training center for NFL players and coaches.

Ford also played a vital role in Detroit's bid for Super Bowl XL. Through his leadership, the Ford family, the Detroit Lions and Ford Motor Company were integral in Detroit's hosting of the premier event of the NFL in February 2006. Super Bowl XL exceeded expectations, generating an overall $260 million economic impact, including $100 million in downtown improvements, $10 million in emerging business – the most in Super Bowl history – and $6 million in the NFL/Boys & Girls Club Youth Education Town, the largest in the country.

In other past roles within the NFL structure, Ford also has served on the NFL Finance Committee and NFL Properties Committee.

In his nearly 20 years as vice chairman, Ford has pushed the Lions to take major steps on several fronts. He strongly supports active community outreach programs. Several initiatives, such as Detroit Lions Charities, have served Detroit and the state of Michigan. In September 2012, the Lions began a new community initiative – Living for the City – that has reshaped the club's aim to improve the lives of Detroiters.

Ford also emphasizes the importance of growing the game of football. The Detroit Lions Youth Football program is one of the most extensive youth sports programs operated by a pro sports team. This program includes numerous camps and clinics teaching the game, life-skills, proper safety practices for players and assists in development of youth coaches. Through Detroit Lions Charities, Ford helped develop the Detroit Police Athletic League youth football program into one of the largest in the country.

Though football remains a passion for Ford, his top priority continues to be in serving as Ford Motor Company executive chairman. His role is a professional and personal commitment, leading the company founded by his great-grandfather, American automotive pioneer Henry Ford. A member of the board of directors since 1988, Ford assumed the role of chairman of the board on January 1, 1999. He also served as chief executive officer from October 2001 through September 2006. Additionally, he serves as chairman of the board's finance committee and is a member of the sustainability committee.

Among his many outside leadership roles, Ford serves on the Board of Trustees of The Henry Ford and Henry Ford Health System. He is also chairman of Detroit Economic Club and the New Michigan Initiative Committee of Business Leaders for Michigan. Ford is a member of the board of directors of eBay and a founding partner of Fontinalis Partners, LLC, a Michigan-based investment firm that acts as a strategic operating partner to transportation infrastructure technology companies around the world.

Ford, born in Detroit in 1957, holds a Bachelor of Arts from Princeton University and a Master of Science in management as an Alfred P. Sloan fellow from Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), an honorary Doctor of Environmental Sciences and Engineering degree from Koc University, an honorary doctor of laws degree from the University of Michigan and an honorary doctor of humane letters degree from Bradley University. Ford is a member of the Irish America Hall of Fame.

TOM LEWAND

PRESIDENT

Tom Lewand, who was named team president December 29, 2008, oversees the team's day-to-day operations and reports to Mrs. Ford on all business, organizational and NFL matters. Now in his 20th season with the Detroit Lions, sixth as president, he continues to guide the overall direction of the franchise.

Lewand's fundamental principle is to consistently present the Lions as a first-class organization with a clear sense of mission and direction.

Among his responsibilities, Lewand is the chief player contract negotiator and he oversees all day-to-day business operations of both the Detroit Lions and Ford Field entities. This includes the management of finance, football administration, player development, security, equipment operations, medical staff, ticketing, sponsorship and marketing, communications, broadcasting, digital media, human resources, Ford Field operations and administration, acquisition of events and the development of Ford Field's lease space in the stadium's progression as a multi-use facility.

Lewand has held a myriad of positions and responsibilities during his tenure with the Lions. Prior to his current role, he was the club's executive vice president and chief operating officer from 2003-08.

On a League-wide level, Lewand contributes to several key business and labor initiatives. He serves on the Super Bowl Advisory Committee and the NFL Management Council's Club Executives Committee. Lewand has also previously served on the Committee on Revenue Sharing Qualifiers and Special Committee on League Economics. Lewand represents the organization for all League-level business matters.

Lewand's leadership positions the entire Lions' organization, including Ford Field operations, to positively impact the Lions' drive for a Super Bowl title. For Lewand, everything from football transactions to Ford Field events influences the team's ability to compete and win.

In January 2014, Lewand and General Manager Martin Mayhew undertook a search for a new head coach. They sought a leader who could elevate the franchise to the next level and build a consistently-winning team to achieve the directive set forth by the Ford Family.

With that focus, the team hired Jim Caldwell to fulfill this vision. Caldwell's impressive coaching career includes leading the Indianapolis Colts to Super Bowl XLIV as the club's head coach and winning two Super Bowls as quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator while with Indianapolis (2006) and Baltimore (2012).

During his tenure with the Lions, Lewand has negotiated player contracts totaling more than $1.5 billion.

Since 2009, Lewand has executed some of the NFL's more extensive and complex contract negotiations by re-signing All-Pro WR Calvin Johnson in 2012 to the highest contract ever signed by a receiver in League history, inking QB Matthew Stafford to his rookie contract in 2009 and his extension in 2013, and signing DT Ndamukong Suh to his rookie contract.

Johnson was the biggest off-season move for the Lions in 2012 as Lewand negotiated a new eight-year contract that has him signed with the Lions through 2019. Stafford's rookie contract occurred within just a few hours of the 2009 NFL Draft, allowing the team to sign the first overall pick prior to the draft. In 2013, Lewand led the negotiations with Stafford to extend the franchise quarterback's contract through 2017.

Johnson, Stafford and Suh represent three of the core of players who will help continue to lead the Lions' progress on the field.

Lewand's additional contract highlights include: the Lions' last 22 first-round draft choices, Hall of Fame RB Barry Sanders' last NFL contract, the contracts of several Pro Bowl players and recent key free agent acquisitions.

BUILDING THE LIONS BRAND

On the business side, Lewand constantly seeks opportunities to evolve and grow the team's operations that, in turn, will influence the team's ability to win on the field. Lewand drives to combine a championship team with unique fan engagement and in-stadium experiences.

One significant area of improvement the past four seasons has been the growth in season ticket holders and ticket sales.

The Lions have sold out their last 29 regular season home games. The introduction of numerous fan-friendly and family-oriented ticket options has greatly improved attendance at all Lions games.

When the Lions defeated the Chicago Bears 24-13 on October 1, 2011 during its first Monday Night Football appearance since 2001, the team claimed victory in front of a Ford Field record crowd (67,891) for a Lions home game.

In fact, the top 17 largest crowds to see a Lions' game at Ford Field have all occurred since 2011.

The Lions have set new season attendance records for Lions games at Ford Field in each of the past three years as the club has attracted over 500,000 fans during the 2011, 2012 and 2013 seasons. Last year marked a record for the club in total home attendance when it attracted 510,369 fans, surpassing the previous two seasons of 510,158 in 2012 and 509,940 in 2011.

In 2010, attendance to Lions games increased 14-percent. It was the largest increase by any NFC team, and Detroit was one of only two teams in the NFL to experience a double-digit increase in ticket sales.

Lewand not only wants the team to provide the best possible product on the field for the fans, but he also is determined to make the experience affordable and one of the most valuable investments for Lions fans. For season ticket holders, the team offers additional unique interactive opportunities, such as town hall meetings, conference calls, meet-and-greets with players and special training camp access among others to complement their purchase of season tickets.

Since 2009, the Lions have achieved the NFL's largest growth in both total season ticket holders and percentage of Club Seats sold.

The excitement and interest over the Lions has caught the attention of the NFL's television partners to feature the team in their marquee national broadcast timeslots. In the past three seasons, Detroit has played on national television 10 times, including four on MNF, three on Sunday Night Football and three on Thanksgiving. The Lions' 10 nationally televised games mark just the fifth time in the past 44 seasons that the team has appeared on national television at least 10 times during a three-year span. In 2012, the Lions played five nationally televised games, including four in prime time, for only the second time since 1970.

In 2014, the Lions are slated for three nationally-televised games, including the season opener vs. the New York Giants on MNF. This season marks the first time the Lions will host a MNF game in four-straight seasons since 1981-84, and it will be the team's first prime time season opening-game since 1991 and the first at home since 1971.

Additionally, the Lions will play in the NFL's first-ever 9:30 a.m. ET kickoff when the Lions face the Falcons at Wembley Stadium in London, England that will air across the country on FOX as part of the NFL's International Series.

Seeking opportunities to reach and communicate with more fans, Lewand emphasizes the importance of growing fan interaction through digital media. In the past year, the team engaged with approximately 8.5 million combined unique users on Detroitlions.com, various social mediums and the Lions' mobile app platform.

Establishing the Lions as a great partner in the community remains a top priority for Lewand and the entire organization. In September 2012, the Lions launched the club's new Living for the City philanthropic program that produces transformational efforts that improve the well-being of metro Detroit's underserved communities by focusing on sustainable health and wellness initiatives and community development. Living for the City supports organizations that pursue integrated approaches to physical fitness, healthy eating, housing, land use and environmental planning, public transportation, community infrastructure, and aligned workforce opportunities.

In 2009, Lewand completed another major initiative that continues to help transform the Lions business operations. The Lions unveiled a new comprehensive brand that launched changes to the team's logo and uniforms, a new team logotype and font and streamlined branding elements. The evolution of the Lions brand is the most complete and all-encompassing modification in franchise history. The new brand now extends beyond the logo on the helmet and presents a consistent visual identity in new, versatile and distinctive ways.

FORD FIELD PHENOMENON

Under Lewand's guidance and direction, Ford Field has become the crown jewel of downtown Detroit and serves as a cornerstone in the city's urban renewal and revitalization efforts. The facility opened to rave reviews in 2002, with the publisher of the Detroit Free Press stating that Ford Field "tells [Detroiters] who we are and suggests what we can be. Now it's up to the rest of us to create a downtown and a city that matches the vision Ford Field realizes."

Few venues, considering space, amenities and operations, have the flexibility to host and execute the variety of large-scale events as does Ford Field.

Lewand leads in the procurement of all events at Ford Field, including college football, MHSAA high school football, concerts, motorsports and various trade shows. Few venues in the U.S. host as many football events of all levels as does Ford Field, filling virtually every weekend in the fall. In any given year, Ford Field dedicates several dates to youth, high school, college and NFL games at Ford Field. This year alone, 13 football games will be played from Thanksgiving Day through December.

Lewand has led in the effort for the Lions to partner with the Big Ten and the Atlantic Coast Conferences to launch a new college bowl game at Ford Field in December 2014.

For the past 12 years, Ford Field has been the home to the Little Caesars Bowl, as well as the MAC Football Championship Game for the past 10 years.

An example of Ford Field's unique capability occurred in 2010 when it hosted the New York Giants and Minnesota Vikings on a re-scheduled Monday Night Game, December 13, a day after the Lions defeated the eventual Super Bowl Champion Green Bay Packers, 10-3, with just less than 20 hours to prepare for the relocated NFL game.

Commercial development has grown as well recently at Ford Field with new tenants, such as Lowe Campbell Ewald, an integrated marketing and advertising agency, and restaurants like The Breadstick.

SUPER BOWL XL

Ford Field dazzled in 2006 when the city of Detroit hosted Super Bowl XL. Lewand served as the point person for the Lions and Ford Field on the Host Committee for Super Bowl XL, and he was among the key figures leading the city's hosting of the game and events surrounding Super Bowl XL, which was widely-acclaimed as successful and critical to Detroit's future growth. Super Bowl XL injected an estimated $260 million economic boost to the Metro Detroit region.

OTHER SHINING MOMENTS

Behind Lewand's leadership, Ford Field once again stepped to the forefront in April 2009 as Detroit, for the first time, hosted the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four. The championship culminated six years of planning, including Lewand representing the organization in a partnership with the NCAA to present the Final Four in a groundbreaking manner that has set the standard for all future sites.

The event featured a first for the Final Four—a center-stadium elevated playing floor configuration that allowed for the utilization of all stadium seats. The evolutional 2009 Ford Field model has since become the standard for all stadiums hosting Final Fours.

The 2009 Final Four also saw Ford Field break long-standing records, including: attendance for the practice session on Final Four Friday (nearly 30,000), the National Semifinals (72,456) and National Championship game (72,992). Overall, a record 145,378 fans attended the Final Four. By hosting the Final Four, Ford Field was the centerpiece for a weekend that had an estimated $30-50 million impact on the city of Detroit and the metro area.

Attendance records were not only set inside Ford Field, but also at ancillary events, such as Hoops City at the Cobo Hall Convention Center. All of these events generated a tremendous opportunity for both residents and visitors to enjoy downtown Detroit over a five-day period.

Paced by Lewand's leadership, the organization followed up that tremendous accomplishment with the highly successful hosting of the 2010 Men's Hockey Frozen Four. Like the basketball championship, Ford Field allowed the NCAA to elevate one of its marquee events to even greater heights.

For the first time, the 2010 Frozen Four was held in a large-stadium venue with the portable ice configuration set-up used in the NHL's annual Winter Classic. The championship garnered record crowds (34,954 for the National Semifinals and 37,592 for the National Championship) that set NCAA Frozen Four records and world indoor hockey records.

Ford Field became the first venue to host the Men's Final Four and the Men's Frozen Four in back-to-back years.

In April 2007 Ford Field hosted WWE's Wrestlemania 23 that set a new Ford Field all-events attendance record (80,103) and had a $25 million impact on the Metro Detroit area.

In June 2011, Ford Field hosted the opening round of the 2011 CONCACAF Gold Cup with two soccer matches between Panama and Guadeloupe and the United States and Canada. The opening round match was the first soccer game played by the U.S. Men's National Team in the Metro Detroit area since the World Cup in 1994, and it drew the largest crowd (28,209) for a U.S. match in the Gold Cup opening round since 2003.

A "LEADER AND BEST"

Lewand possesses a strong educational background, having received a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Michigan in 1991, and completing both his Juris Doctor at the University of Michigan Law School and Master in Business Administration from the University of Michigan Business School in 1996. Lewand aided the Michigan football program in various capacities on a volunteer basis while attending the school. He also worked for the Lions on a part-time basis while completing work on his graduate degrees.

In 1991, Lewand served as an environmental advisor for the Governor of Indiana, Evan Bayh. Following a year in that position, he entered graduate school at Michigan. He spent time working for the law firm of Dickinson Wright in Detroit, and the Chicago law firm of Kirkland and Ellis. In the summer of 1993, he worked in the White House in the Counsel's Office for Presidential Personnel.

Lewand's family history is entrenched in the Detroit area community. His father, F. Thomas Lewand, now serves on the staff of newly-elected Detroit Mayor Mike Duggan as group executive for jobs and economic growth. He worked as an attorney for 43 years and was both the Chief of Staff for former Governor James Blanchard and the Chairman of the Michigan Democratic Party. His late grandfather, Joseph B. Sullivan, was a judge in the Michigan Court of Appeals and was the deputy mayor of Detroit in the 1960s.

OFF THE FIELD

Lewand is active in the community, acting as Past Chairman of the Detroit Metro Convention and Visitors Bureau and serving on the Boards of Directors of the Detroit Zoological Society, the Downtown Detroit Partnership, the Detroit Economic Growth Corporation and the Parade Company.

In a collaborative effort to reduce and prevent youth sports concussions, Lewand represented the Lions and the organization's work with Michigan legislators, the NFL and various youth sports organizations to pass state laws that have implemented concussion education and awareness programs along with a medical protocol for young athletes to return to action.

Lewand also is on the Corporate Advisory Board for the University of Michigan's Ross School of Business. Lewand was named as one of Crain's Detroit Business "40 Under 40" in 1998, which honored and recognized 40 top business people in the Detroit area under the age of 40. Lewand has also been recognized nationally twice, in 2003 and 2005, by the Sports Business Journal as one of the top "40 Under 40" sports executives in the United States.

He and his wife, Suzanne, have four daughters: Cayleigh, Paige, Shannon and Erin.

MARTIN MAYHEW

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS AND GENERAL MANAGER

Since becoming the Lions Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager, Martin Mayhew has orchestrated a dramatic transformation of the Lions personnel and front office. Now in his 14th season with the Lions, Mayhew reports directly to Mrs. Ford on all football matters.

With 2014 marking Mayhew's sixth season as the team's executive football decision-maker, he continues to build the Lions roster through a plan that focuses on acquiring players with great football character who are smart and physically-tough.

The process of improving the Lions' success on the field continued in January 2014 when the team hired a new head coach in Jim Caldwell.

Along with President Tom Lewand, Mayhew hired Caldwell to lead this franchise due to his experience coaching at a championship level and has background utilizing effective schemes and emphasizing strong fundamentals.

Mayhew believes that Caldwell's extensive experience, skill-set and success as both head coach and offensive coordinator will greatly benefit the team's development. Caldwell led the Indianapolis Colts to Super Bowl XLIV as head coach and won two Super Bowl titles (Super Bowl XLI with Indianapolis and Super Bowl XLVII with Baltimore) as quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator. While with the Colts, Caldwell helped guide one of the greatest offensive dynasties in pro football history.

Mayhew also has reorganized and enhanced the team's player personnel operations throughout his tenure as general manager, including the addition of experienced personnel executives, reorganizing scouting territories and launching a new scouting database to process information.

In his role, Mayhew oversees the player personnel department, including college and pro scouting, and plays an integral role in the coordination of the team's salary cap objectives and negotiation of player contracts. Mayhew and Lewand collectively work on all team matters pertaining to the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement and League policies and procedures.

One of his earliest and most important additions to the personnel department was the 2009 hiring of former NFL quarterback and long-time personnel executive James "Shack" Harris. Harris, entering his 37th season in the NFL this year, has worked 27 years in scouting, including six seasons and two playoff appearances as the Jacksonville Jaguars' vice president of player personnel.

Mayhew's improvement of the Lions player personnel operation continued in January 2013 when he added Brian Xanders, former Denver Broncos general manager, as one of the team's senior personnel executives. Xanders, now in his 21st NFL season, has experience in a variety of player personnel, football operations and coaching roles gained during his time with the Broncos and Atlanta Falcons organizations. Xanders served four seasons as the Broncos general manager, including the 2011 season when Denver won the 2011 AFC West Division title. Since joining the Lions, Xanders has overseen the creation of a new proprietary personnel database and analytical program that has greatly enhanced and aided the team's scouting operation and also assisted with the college draft.

In addition to his duties, the coordination of all football operations, managed day-to-day by Vice President of Football Operations Cedric Saunders, is under the direction of Mayhew. This includes team travel, training camp operations, security, medical staff, equipment operations, video department and cafeteria staff. Mayhew also works on many of the Lions' football-related legal matters.

Mayhew originally joined the Lions' front office in February, 2001, as senior director of football administration/staff counsel. He was promoted to senior vice president of football administration/legal affairs on February 3, 2003, and on October 14, 2004, he was appointed senior vice president and assistant general manager.

ROSTER CONSTRUCTION

Along with free agency and the draft, Mayhew utilizes every resource, including trades and the league's waiver wire process, year-round to improve the team's roster from top to bottom.

Significant change to the team's roster over the past four seasons underscores Mayhew's 24/7 philosophy and approach to improving the team's roster. Only three players remain from the 2008 roster when Mayhew began overseeing its development.

In 2011, Mayhew's approach paid dividends when the Lions won 10 regular-season games for the first time since 1995 and also earned a playoff berth for the first time since 1999. Only twice in the team's previous 78 seasons had a Lions team won more than 10 regular-season games (11 in 1962 and 12 in 1991). That season marked only the sixth time the team won 10 games in the regular season.

As the Lions entered the 2014 free agency period, two key areas of need were wide receiver and safety. Mayhew responded with the signing of WR Golden Tate, fresh off a Super Bowl win with the Seattle Seahawks, and S James Ihedigbo, who was instrumental in the Baltimore Ravens defense that won the Super Bowl two years ago.

Since assuming the organization's top football position in October, 2008, Mayhew has completed 27 trades involving veteran players and draft picks. Two of Mayhew's trades generated additional first-round draft picks in 2009 and 2010. It marked the first time in franchise history that the Lions have made two selections in the first round of the draft in back-to-back seasons.

Neither free agency nor the draft is ever the finish line for Mayhew as he continues to seek an upgrade in talent by any means to develop and improve the team's roster.

BUILDING THE CORE

Mayhew understands the best rosters in the NFL begin with successful drafts. Mayhew's rookie class in 2013 saw seven first-year players start for the team, with three draft picks earning starting berths.

While each of his personnel decisions will impact the team's performance, it may be Mayhew's very first draft choice as general manager that could have the greatest long-term impact. That selection, QB Matthew Stafford, produced at a level the past three seasons that is unrivaled in the history of the franchise.

Stafford had one of the biggest breakout seasons in 2011 when he set franchise passing records for yards (5,038) and touchdowns (41). He led the team to several comeback wins, including an NFL record three wins after trailing by 17+ points, four after trailing by 13+ points and two 20+-point comebacks in back-to-back-weeks. His performance earned him the 2011 AP Comeback Player of the Year award.

In his first five seasons, Stafford has claimed the team's career (17,457), season (5,038) and single-game (520) passing records for yards. He is just one of two players in NFL history to throw for 4,500 yards in three consecutive seasons, and he reached 15,000 career passing yards faster (53 games) than any player in NFL history. He is also the fourth-fastest player to throw for 100 career touchdowns (55 games). Additionally, Stafford now owns the team's franchise record with 48 consecutive starts (49 including postseason) by a quarterback.

Despite the fact that he will play in his sixth NFL season, Stafford is still just 26-years old heading into the 2014 season.

Along with Stafford, Mayhew's first draft also produced two other starters in TE Brandon Pettigrew and LB DeAndre Levy, who both signed long-term contract extensions over the past two seasons. Pettigrew owns several single-season receiving records by Lions tight ends and Levy broke out last season with six interceptions, the most by a Lions linebacker since Hall of Fame LB Joe Schmidt in 1958.

Mayhew obtained three-time Pro Bowl and All-Pro DT Ndamukong Suh in his second draft in 2010. Suh anchors the defense and leads a unit that forms the aggressive heartbeat to the defensive side of the ball.

In 2011, DT Nick Fairley was taken with the 13th overall pick. Despite battling injuries, Fairley proved that he could disrupt opponents' offenses alongside Suh as he collected 11.5 sacks over the past two years, including 6.0 in 2013.

The Lions first-round draft pick in 2012, T Riley Reiff, has moved right into the left tackle spot following the retirement of 12-year veteran Jeff Backus. His anchoring of the team's left side of the offensive line led to one of the most productive seasons by the team's offensive line in team history. Second-rounder Ryan Broyles adds value to the offense in the slot, and three cornerbacks, Bill Bentley, Chris Greenwood and Jonté Green are all competing for key spots in the Lions secondary.

Universally touted as the team's best draft class under Mayhew, the 2013 class produced several starters and key contributors throughout the draft and via the undrafted free agents. All 11 members of that class will start or compete for roster positions to provide depth on this year's team.

Taken fifth overall, DE Ezekiel Ansah led the Lions with 8.0 sacks as a rookie and will continue to force the edge at defensive end. Second-round CB Darius Slay will seek to take a big step in year two and provide support at one of the team's corner positions. In Round 3, Detroit drafted G Larry Warford to help anchor the team's interior offensive line at the right guard position. Warford was named Rookie of the Year by Pro Football Focus as well as all-rookie by several publications. In the fifth round, the team traded up to select P Sam Martin, who not only set the team's single-season net punting record (40.4) but also has the second-highest tally by a rookie in NFL history. Martin also contributed greatly on kickoffs, registering 38 touchbacks.

Solidifying the strength of this class were the signings of TE Joseph Fauria and T LaAdrian Waddle as undrafted free agents. Fauria caught seven touchdown passes, the second-most in a season by a Lions tight end. Waddle made the roster and started eight of the last nine games of the season.

STRENGTHENING POSITIONS

Mayhew maximizes his resources in an effort to not only strengthen the team by improving individual talent, but also by strengthening each position unit from top to bottom. Instead of just featuring some standout players, this team now moves forward with deep, talented position groups.

Offensively, wide receiver and tight end have become positions of strength and a critical complement to Stafford at quarterback.

Leading the receivers is All-Pro WR Calvin Johnson, who is a four-time Pro Bowl selection. After signing a new eight-year contract in March 2012, Johnson is now entering his eighth year with the club. He combines unparalleled athletic ability and size with an outstanding work ethic that has resulted in him now being considered among the very best players in the game.

While he produced at a high level early in his career, Johnson elevated his game the past three seasons to historical proportions. In 2013, he became the first player in NFL history to register 5,000 receiving yards over a three-year stretch and he now holds the NFL career record for average yards per game (88.0). In 2012, Johnson broke Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice's single-season receiving yards record when he recorded 1,964 yards. He also set records in 2012 for the most consecutive 100-yard games (eight) and tied an NFL record with 11 100-yard games in a season.

In 2011, Johnson set a team record with 16 touchdown catches, and he accumulated 1,681 receiving yards, now the third-most in team history.

Over the past three years, the NFL Network poll of current players ranked Johnson as the only player within the Top 3 in each of those three seasons. This year he was voted as the second-best player overall.

Few teams feature a group of talented tight ends who offer multiple dimensions as do the Lions. Sixth-year TE Brandon Pettigrew, who re-signed a four-year contract extension this past offseason, re-wrote the record books for Lions tight ends in 2010 and 2011, and he continues to move toward threatening the team's career receiving records by tight ends. Along with Pettigrew, he is joined by Fauria and Eric Ebron, the Lions' 2014 first-round selection who presents matchup challenges for opponents with their size, speed and ability to flex out wide.

Upfront, the Lions have worked diligently to improve the offensive line after the departure of Jeff Backus and two other 2012 starters. C Dominic

Raiola is the only starting offensive lineman remaining prior to 2008. Since then, Mayhew has signed free agents G Rob Sims and T Corey Hilliard, drafted players such as Reiff and Warford and acquired Waddle to retool the team's offensive line. Last year, the offensive front allowed the second-lowest sack total (23) in the NFL, which was also the third-lowest in team history. They paved the way for Lions running backs to average 173.1 total yards per game, the third-highest average among running backs.

With the free agent signing of RB Reggie Bush in 2013, the Lions attacked opponents with multiple and diverse weapons out of the backfield, utilizing the complementary skills of Bush and RB Joique Bell. Combined, Bush and Bell became the first tandem of running backs in NFL history to each garner 500 rushing and 500 receiving yards in the same season. Bush rushed for over 1,000 yards and registered over 500 receiving yards, becoming the first Lions running back to accomplish this feat since RB Billy Sims in 1980.

On defense, the team's ability to disrupt opponent offenses starts upfront with the Lions defensive line. Over the past four years, it has led the Lions defense with its ability to attack upfront and disrupt opponents offenses. Since 2010, the Lions defensive linemen have registered 130.5 sacks, third-most in the NFL among defensive line units.

The defensive line is led in the middle by Suh and Fairley. Over the past two seasons, they have combined for 25 sacks and 25.5 tackles for loss on rushing plays. On the outside, Ansah's 8.0 sacks also led all rookies last year.

At linebacker, the team returns starters Stephen Tulloch in the middle and Levy at one of the outside spots. In 2011, Tulloch had career highs in sacks, interceptions and fumble recoveries in his first season with Detroit, which led to him signing a new five-year contact in the following offseason. The importance of re-signing Tulloch to a long-term deal was not understated by Mayhew as he referred to him as the quarterback on defense. Tulloch's knowledge of the schemes and ability to attack from the linebacker spot gives the team an anchor in the middle.

Levy proved to be one of the NFL's biggest playmakers last year at outside linebacker when he garnered six interceptions, tied for second-most in the NFL and most among linebackers.

In the secondary, the Lions are led by Glover Quin and Ihedigbo at safety. Quin joined the Lions in 2013 and settled the team's free safety position and added great leadership to the overall defense. Ihedigbo will join Quin at the safety position, along with S Don Carey to control the team's secondary. On the outside, the Lions return second-year CB Darius Slay and veteran CB Rashean Mathis along with Bentley and Green, who have contributed over the past two years.

Martin provided a spark to the Lions special teams as a punter and kickoff specialist and will be called upon for years to come. Mayhew is now seeking to solidify the kicking position and drafted K Nate Freese, a 2014 seventh-round pick, to potentially fill that role.

LEGAL BACKGROUND

Throughout his journey leading up to his current post, Mayhew has always kept an eye toward the future, as evidenced by his strategic exposure to several jobs and internships while earning his law degree from Georgetown's Law Center (2000). He is one of three Lions' front office executives and administrators with law degrees.

During the 1999 NFL season, while attending law school, Mayhew served a nine-month internship in the Washington Redskins' pro personnel department, which exposed him to the responsibilities of an NFL scouting department. While with the Redskins, he scouted NFL players, including late NFL cuts, and worked the waiver wire and also assisted in the evaluation of college players for the 2000 NFL Draft. Mayhew also had two separate internship stints with the NFL in both the labor operations and legal departments.

In labor operations, Mayhew worked closely with NFL executives on issues involving player contracts and the salary cap. With the legal department, Mayhew assisted the NFL's in-house labor counsel by researching legal issues, digesting cases in preparation for arbitration hearings and drafting legal memoranda related to player injury and non-injury grievances. He also was exposed to corporate law while working for Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld, L.L.P. in Washington D.C., one of the NFL's primary firms used as outside counsel. At Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer and Feld, he researched legal issues, wrote legal documents and assisted firm associates and partners in preparation for litigation.

PRO CAREER

Mayhew played nine years in the NFL as a cornerback for Buffalo (1988), Washington (1989-92) and Tampa Bay (1993-96). He was the Bills' 10th-round selection in the 1988 NFL Draft and was a starter on the Redskins' Super Bowl XXVI championship team.

SEMINOLE STANDOUT

He entered the League after graduating from Florida State with a Bachelor of Science degree in business management. While at FSU, he was a National Merit and Achievement Scholar and earned GTE CoSida Academic All-America honors. He was also a two-sport athlete, lettering on both the Seminoles' football and track teams. Between graduation and the draft, Mayhew was a corporate trainee at First Union National Bank in Charlotte, N.C.

OFF THE FIELD

Throughout his professional career, Mayhew has contributed to several community endeavors both as a player and as an executive. In 1993, while playing for Tampa Bay, Mayhew was given the Chelo Huerta Community Service Award, and the following year he was a nominee for the True Value Hardware Man of the Year. From 1995-96, Mayhew was the Bucs' United Way Spokesperson. Mayhew is a member of the Florida Bar. Additionally, Mayhew is a member of the Board of Trustees for the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village and Board of Directors of Detroit PAL.

For the past six years, he has hosted the Martin Mayhew Youth Football Coaching Academy for approximately 100 coaches from Detroit PAL. The purpose of the camp is to provide additional teaching and training tools for coaches so they can continue having a positive and long-lasting impact on the young lives they touch through youth football.

Mayhew and his wife, Sabrina, have a daughter, Sierra, and two sons, Ryan and Justin.

JIM CALDWELL

HEAD COACH

Years with Lions: 1
Years as NFL Head Coach: 4
Years in NFL: 14

As the Lions' new head coach, Jim Caldwell brings 37 years of coaching experience to Detroit, including 13 previous years in the NFL and 24 years on the college level. Two Super Bowl titles and three appearances in the NFL's championship game highlight his coaching resume, which includes leading the Indianapolis Colts to an AFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XLVI as head coach following the 2009 season.

On January 14, 2014, the day Caldwell was hired by the Ford Family to lead this proud and historic franchise, his message to the organization was two-fold:

"Image and identity. Either you create it, or somebody's going to create it for you," Caldwell stated. "So, let me tell you what we're going to look like. We're going to be smart. We're going to be a football team that takes the field that's not going to shoot itself in the foot.

"We're going to be a team that is disciplined, focused and understands situational football. It's going to be drilled and drilled and drilled and not just given lip service. What you should see on the field is obviously a product of our coaching, our instruction and our demands."

Caldwell continued, "We're going to do things the right way, but we're going to be a physical, hard-nosed, rough football team. We're going to flat get after you from the word 'go' every single snap of the ball on offense, defense and in the kicking game."

COACHING OVERVIEW

- Hired as head coach for the Detroit Lions January 14, 2014.
- Coached in three Super Bowls with Indianapolis (XLI and XLIV) and Baltimore (XLVII) and won two Super Bowl titles (Indianapolis and Baltimore).
- In first year as head coach for Indianapolis (2009), he won the AFC Championship and led the franchise to Super Bowl XLIV. He became the first NFL coach to win his first 14 games and the fifth rookie head coach to reach the Super Bowl.
- One of four head coaches to produce 24+ regular-season wins and a Super Bowl berth in their first two career seasons as head coach.
- Holds a 26-22 (.542) regular-season record in three seasons as an NFL head coach, including two seasons with at least 10 wins.
- Led the Colts to two consecutive AFC South division titles in 2009 and 2010.
- In eight of the 10 seasons Caldwell coached in Indianapolis, the Colts ranked in the Top-10 in total offense eight times and six times in the Top-5.
- From 2003-09, Caldwell was the Colts quarterbacks coach and was also promoted to assistant head coach and associate head coach during that time. He worked closely with QB Peyton Manning and the team's quarterbacks. During that span, Indianapolis set NFL records with seven consecutive seasons finishing with 11+ wins (6, Dallas 1976-81) and 12+ victories (4, Dallas, 1992-95).
- Manning won all four of his NFL MVP (2003, 2004, 2008, 2009) awards under Caldwell's tutelage.
- Two of his quarterbacks, Manning (Super Bowl XLI) and Ravens QB Joe Flacco (Super Bowl XLVII) were named Super Bowl MVPs following their teams' respective championship runs.
- Led the Ravens offense to a 5-2 record after taking over as offensive coordinator late in the 2012 season as the team averaged 400.6 yards per game during that span.

RAVENS SUPER RUN

On December 10, 2012, less than one year since joining the Ravens as the team's quarterbacks coach, Caldwell was promoted to offensive coordinator with just three weeks to play in the regular season. Ravens Head Coach John Harbaugh entrusted Caldwell to lead the team's offensive unit in its run to make the playoffs. What resulted from this decision changed the direction of the Ravens and put them on path to claim an NFL title by winning Super Bowl XLVII.

After Caldwell took over the team's offense, the Ravens would win the AFC North and go on to win the Super Bowl. In the team's final seven games, including four in the postseason, the Ravens averaged 400.6 yards per game and 27.3 points per game, including 410.3 yards per game and 31.0 points per game in the playoffs. The Ravens' 31.0 points/game in the postseason is the highest playoff scoring average in NFL history by a Super Bowl team who advanced from the Wild Card round and played four playoff games.

During that span, QB Joe Flacco threw 15 touchdowns with just one interception, along with 1,737 passing yards. In the playoffs, Flacco threw 11 touchdowns and 0 interceptions and accumulated a 117.2 passer rating. He joined Hall of Fame QB Joe Montana as the only passers in NFL history to throw 11+ touchdowns and 0 interceptions during an NFL postseason.

Caldwell served as the Ravens offensive coordinator in 2013 before arriving in Detroit.

INDY'S HORSEPOWER

In 10 seasons in Indianapolis (2002-11), including three as the franchise's head coach (2009-11), Caldwell and the Colts achieved almost unparalleled success. In each of the first nine seasons, the Colts made the playoffs with a record-setting nine-consecutive playoff appearances that included six AFC South titles, two Super Bowl berths (XLI and XLIV) and one Super Bowl championship (XLI).

In 2009, Caldwell was named the Colts' head coach, a position he would oversee for the next three seasons. In his first two seasons, he directed the Colts to 14-2 and 10-6 regular-season records, winning consecutive AFC South titles, an AFC Championship and earning a berth in Super Bowl XLIV. He is one of just four head coaches in NFL history to win 24+ games and earn a berth in the Super Bowl in the coach's first two career seasons as a head coach.

During his first season as the Colts head coach, the team was 14-2. He became the NFL's only rookie head coach to win his first 14 games in a season and second to win 14 games in his rookie season as coach. He also became the fifth rookie head coach to reach the Super Bowl.

As a crucial piece to the Colts offensive coaching staff, Caldwell worked closely with All-Pro QB Peyton Manning and the team's quarterbacks. His leadership helped guide the Colts offense to eight Top-10 rankings in total offense during his 10 seasons with Indianapolis, and the team was a Top-5 offense six different times.

In Caldwell's first two seasons as head coach (2009-10), Manning recorded the highest (4,700 yards in 2010) and third-highest (4,500 yards in 2009) passing totals in team history. In both seasons, he threw for 33 touchdowns which ranked as the second and third-highest tallies in Colts history.

From 2002-10, the Colts won 109 games as Manning averaged a league-best 266.7 yards per game and threw for the most touchdowns (288) during that span. His completion percentage (66.7) and passer rating (99.3) were also the best in the NFL during those nine seasons. All four NFL MVP honors earned by Manning occurred while working with Caldwell.

Caldwell spent his first three seasons as a quarterbacks coach before earning the expanded title of assistant head coach prior to the 2005 season. He was elevated to associate head coach with the club in 2008.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT CALDWELL

Former Indianapolis Colts Head Coach Tony Dungy: "I told Martin (Mayhew) that Jim Caldwell is exactly what you're looking for. He'll lead by making people accountable and by being a role model on and off the field. And with his attention to detail and history of developing quarterbacks, (Matthew) Stafford is going to flourish just like Peyton Manning did with us in Indianapolis.

Baltimore Ravens General Manager Ozzie Newsome: "I believe it would be difficult to find anyone with the Ravens who is more respected than Jim Caldwell. That includes players, coaches and other staff members. He earned that because of the person he is and his extensive knowledge about football, including the keys to winning and his ability to teach all of that. Personally, it is a privilege to know him, and it was an honor to work with him.

"We put Jim in a difficult position a year ago when we named him offensive coordinator late in the season. All he did was help us turn our offense around, and we won the Super Bowl. He has many strengths, but one that is sometimes overlooked is his ability to bring a coaching staff together. He has already succeeded as a head coach, and he will again in Detroit."

Denver Broncos QB Peyton Manning: "Jim Caldwell has meant a great deal to me in my career. I felt like, once he got to Indianapolis, and became my quarterbacks coach, that my game really improved. It took a step up, and I thought Jim had a great deal to do with that."

Baltimore Ravens QB Joe Flacco: "I enjoyed my time with Jim greatly. He is a man that I will always respect as a football coach, leader and a friend. Through his calming influence and extensive knowledge of the game, he was an integral part of our success over the past few years. He will be missed by me and the Ravens.

PREVIOUS COACHING EXPERIENCE

Caldwell's NFL coaching roots date back to 2001 when he worked as a quarterbacks coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. After acquiring QB Brad Johnson via free agency, Caldwell helped the veteran quarterback to break then-team records for passing yards (3,046), completions (340) and attempts (540) as the team finished 9-7 and earned an NFC Wild Card berth.

Before making the jump to the NFL, Caldwell spent seven seasons as the head coach at Wake Forest University where the Demon Deacons' offense ranked in the NCAA's Top-25 four times. In 1999, he led the team to its first winning season and bowl appearance (Aloha Bowl) since 1992. In 1995, the offense was ranked 10th in the nation and QB Rusty LaRue established seven NCAA passing records.

From 1986-92, Caldwell was an assistant at Penn State where he coached the wide receivers (1986), quarterbacks and wide receivers (1987-90) and was named passing coordinator in 1991-92. With the Nittany Lions, Caldwell tutored QB Kerry Collins early in his college career. Collins would end his career at Penn State winning the Davey O'Brien Award as the nation's top college quarterback and the Maxwell Award as the nation's most outstanding player.

Caldwell's previous coaching stints include assistant positions at Louisville (1985), Colorado (1981-83), Northwestern (1981) and Southern Illinois (1978-80).

He launched his coaching career in 1977 as a graduate assistant for the Iowa Hawkeyes football program.

During his college coaching career, Caldwell coached in six bowl games and won a national championship with Penn State in 1986. He also worked for several legendary college coaches who all won national titles during their careers, including Joe Paterno (Penn State), Howard Schnellenberger (Louisville), Bill McCartney (Colorado) and Rey Dempsey (Southern Illinois).

RON PRINCE

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/ TIGHT ENDS

Years in NFL: 4

Ron Prince joins the Lions in 2013 as assistant head coach/tight ends after serving as the Rutgers offensive coordinator in 2012. Prince possesses 22 years of coaching experience, including three in the NFL. He has previously held assistant offensive line positions with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2012) and Indianapolis Colts (2010-11), and has been a head coach (Kansas State) and offensive coordinator (Virginia, Rutgers) during his 19 years at the collegiate level.

Last season, Prince led Rutgers to the Pinstripe Bowl and saw two of his players, TE Tyler Kroft and RB Paul James, earn All-American Athletic Conference honors in 2013.

Prince worked as an assistant offensive line coach in the NFL from 2010-12 with the Jaguars and Colts. In 2010, he helped Indianapolis' offensive line pave the way for more than 5,000 yards of total offense for the 13th-consecutive season en route to the team's second-straight AFC South division championship. His unit also finished tied atop the NFL in sacks allowed with 16 on 695 pass attempts as the Colts' offense ranked fourth in total offense and first in passing offense. Prince also guided C Jeff Saturday to a fifth Pro Bowl selection that season, and the offensive line unit protected QB Peyton Manning as he set an NFL single-season record with 450 pass completions.

Before jumping to the NFL ranks, Prince served various positions at Kansas State (2006-08) and Virginia (2001-05, 2009). Before returning to Virginia in 2009 to coach special teams, Prince was the head coach at Kansas State where he led the Wildcats to 17 wins, the most by any head coach in his first three seasons in school history. In 2003, he was promoted from offensive line coach to offensive coordinator at Virginia as he commandeered the Cavaliers' offense to four consecutive bowl games from 2002-05. During Prince's time at Virginia, 11 players earned All-ACC honors, including the conference's 2002 Player of the Year, QB Matt Schaub. Among the NFL talent Prince helped develop at both programs include T D'Brickashaw Ferguson, QB Josh Freeman, TE Heath Miller and WR Jordy Nelson.

A native of Junction City, Kan., and former offensive lineman at Dodge City Community College (1988-89), Prince began his coaching career at the school as a volunteer in 1992 before earning his first coaching job at Alabama A&M as offensive line coach in 1993. His previous collegiate coaching stops include offensive line positions at South Carolina State (1994), James Madison (1995-97) and Cornell (1998-2000). He also served minority coaching internships with the Jaguars (1996), Washington Redskins (1997), Atlanta Falcons (1998) and New York Giants (2000).

After spending two seasons at Dodge City, Prince finished his collegiate playing career at Appalachian State from 1990-91, where he also earned a bachelor's degree in history in 1992.

Prince was born September 18, 1969. He has four children, Deuce, James, Grace and John.

TERYL AUSTIN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Years with Lions: 1
Years in NFL: 11

Teryl Austin enters his first season with the Detroit Lions as the team's defensive coordinator after spending the previous three seasons as the Baltimore Ravens defensive backs coach. A former safety at the University of Pittsburgh, Austin brings 23 years of coaching experience to the Lions' staff, specifically with a special talent for developing and teaching defensive backs. He has spent 10 of the last 11 seasons as a defensive backs coach in the NFL, including stints with the Seattle Seahawks (2003-06), Arizona Cardinals (2007-09) and most recently with the Ravens (2011-13). With each of his NFL stops, he has helped his teams to Super Bowl appearances (Seattle in 2005, Arizona in 2008 and Baltimore in 2012). In 2012, he helped guide the Ravens to a win in Super Bowl XLVII in New Orleans.

COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

- Coached the Baltimore Ravens secondary from 2011-13. During that span, the Ravens ranked first in the NFL in pass defenses with 298. In each of the past three seasons, the Ravens defense has ranked in the Top-10 in Red Zone defense, including a League-leading opponent touchdown percentage of 38.1 in 2011.
- As defensive coordinator at the University of Florida in 2010, the Gators recorded 22 interceptions, the fourth-most in the nation that season. The Florida defensive backfield also returned four of those picks for touchdowns.
- Mentored three Cardinals defensive backs to the Pro Bowl as Arizona's defensive backs coach in 2009, including CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie, S Antrel Rolle and S Adrian Wilson. His Cardinals secondary also led the League in interception-touchdowns (six) in 2007.
- In his first NFL coaching stint, Austin's secondary in Seattle ranked 10th in the NFL in interceptions with 67 over his four seasons.
- Spent time as defensive backs coach at Michigan (1999-2002), Syracuse (1996-98) and Wake Forest (1993-95). He also served as a graduate assistant at Penn State from 1991-92.

Austin joined the Baltimore Ravens staff in 2011and quickly developed the team's secondary into an integral part of one of the NFL's most feared defenses in recent years. In 2012, Austin helped guide the Ravens defense to six interceptions in the postseason en route to the team's Super Bowl XLVII championship run. Over his three seasons in Baltimore (2011-13), the Ravens also ranked first in the NFL in pass defenses with 298.

Austin's history of progressing NFL talent both young and experienced is well-documented. Last season, Austin's starting CBs Lardarius Webb (second) and Jimmy Smith (14th) both finished in the Top-15 in the NFL in pass defenses with 22 and 16, respectively. The Ravens also saw progression from first-round draft pick S Matt Elam, who Austin also mentored during his time as defensive coordinator at the University of Florida. Under Austin's tutelage, veteran S Ed Reed earned his ninth career Pro Bowl nod in 2012 after co-leading the team in interceptions with four that season. Reed also recorded his ninth career postseason interception in Super Bowl XLVII as the Ravens led all playoff teams with six interceptions.

In 2011, the Ravens led the NFL in passing touchdowns allowed with a League-low 11 and surrendered the third-fewest points (16.6 avg/game), tying an NFL record by ranking in the Top-3 in points allowed for the fourth consecutive season.

Prior to joining the Ravens, Austin earned his first stint as defensive coordinator with Florida in 2010. His Gators defense tallied 22 interceptions that season, ranking fourth in the NCAA and returning four of those picks for touchdowns. In SEC games, Florida led the conference in total defense by allowing only 310.8 yards per game.

Austin's college coaching career dates back to his days as a graduate assistant at Penn State from 1991-92. He has held positions as defensive backs coach at three prestigious universities, including Michigan (1999-2002), Syracuse (1996-98) and Wake Forest (1993-95) where he worked under Jim Caldwell for three seasons. Among the college players Austin helped prepare for NFL careers include CB Will Allen (Syracuse), LB Keith Bulluck (Syracuse) and CB Marlin Jackson (Michigan).

A three-year starter and four-year letterman at Pittsburgh, Austin played safety for the Panthers from 1984-87. He earned his bachelor's degree in communications from the University of Pittsburgh in 1988 and went on to play for the Montreal Machine of the World League of American Football in 1991 after attending training camps with the Washington Redskins and Hamilton Tiger-Cats (CFL). He attended Sharon (Pa.) High School.

Austin was born March 3, 1965. He and his wife, April, have five children, including sons Tyler, Trey and Torin, and daughters Alexa and Alivia.

JOE LOMBARDI

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Years with Lions: 1
Years in NFL: 9

Joe Lombardi brings 18 years of coaching experience to the Lions offensive coaching staff, including eight in the NFL and the last seven with the New Orleans Saints. After holding various positions in the college ranks, Lombardi made the leap to the NFL as a defensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons in 2006 before joining the Saints in 2007. He spent his first two years in New Orleans as an offensive assistant before being promoted to quarterbacks coach in 2009, where he worked exclusively with eight-time Pro Bowl QB Drew Brees over the past five seasons.

COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

- Has spent the last eight seasons coaching in the NFL with stops in Atlanta as a defensive assistant in 2006 and New Orleans from 2007-2013. Began his tenure with the Saints as an offensive assistant before earning the job as quarterbacks coach in 2009.
- Mentored eight-time Pro Bowl QB Drew Brees to a record-breaking season in 2011 as the quarterback passed for 5,476 yards to break the NFL-record for single-season passing yards (5,084) set by Dan Marino in 1984.
- Helped the Saints to the team's first-ever Super Bowl victory in his first year as quarterbacks coach in 2009 as they defeated Indianapolis, 31-17, in Super Bowl XLIV.
- Previous college coaching experience includes Dayton (1996-98), Virginia Military Institute (1999), Bucknell (2000) and Mercyhurst College (2002-05). Also coached with the former XFL's New York/New Jersey Hitmen in 2001.
- Grandson of Hall of Fame coach Vince Lombardi.

While with the Saints, Lombardi helped guide the New Orleans offense to League-leading numbers. Since Lombardi joined the Saints staff in 2007, New Orleans ranks first in net passing yards (33,349), completions (3,022) and passing touchdowns (257). In his first season as quarterbacks coach in 2009, the Saints finished 13-3 and defeated the Indianapolis Colts, 31-17, in Super Bowl XLIV, securing the team's first NFL championship in franchise history.

Lombardi's molding of Brees into one of the NFL's all-time great quarterbacks is well-documented. From 2009-2013, Brees set the NFL individual record for most passing yards in a five-year span with 24,823. Under Lombardi's coaching over the last five seasons, Brees is atop the League in passing yards (24,823), completions (2,147), passing touchdowns (195), and his passer rating of 102.1 ranks third during that span behind only Packers QB Aaron Rodgers (108.2) and Broncos QB Peyton Manning (103.1). During his 2009-2012 stretch, Brees also carried an NFL-record 54 game streak with at least one passing touchdown, shattering the previous mark of 47 set by Hall of Fame QB Johnny Unitas in 1960.

In 2011, Brees threw for 5,476 yards and 43 touchdowns to break Hall of Fame QB Dan Marino's NFL single-season passing yardage record that stood for 27 seasons. Only Broncos QB Peyton Manning has thrown for more yards in a single season (5,477, 2013) since then. On the NFL's all-time single-season passing yards list, Brees holds four of the Top-10 spots (2008, 7th; 2011, 2nd; 2012, 4th; 2013, 5th). With 5,162 yards in 2013, he also became the first player in NFL history to throw for more than 5,000 yards in three-consecutive seasons. He is only the fifth player to reach 50,000 career passing yards (51,081) and did so faster than any other player in NFL history (183 games).

Lombardi earned his first stint in the NFL as a defensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons in 2006. An experienced coach on both sides of the ball, he worked with a Falcons defensive line that recorded 25.5 sacks that season. Prior to his time in Atlanta, Lombardi was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Mercyhurst (Pa.) University from 2002-05, where he also served as recruiting coordinator.

The grandson of legendary NFL coach Vince Lombardi, Lombardi graduated from the United States Air Force Academy in 1994, where he earned three letters as a tight end and one in lacrosse. He began his coaching career at the University of Dayton (1996-98) and has held previous assistant coach positions with the Virginia Military Institute (1999), Bucknell (2000) and New York/New Jersey Hitmen of the former XFL (2001).

A native of Seattle, Wash., Lombardi was born June 6, 1971. He and his wife, Molly, have six children – sons Joseph, Thomas and Dominic, and daughters Maria, Bernadette and Clare.

JOHN BONAMEGO

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Years with Lions: 2
Years in NFL: 16

John Bonamego, a 16-year veteran coach in the NFL, joined the Lions in January 2013 and enters his second season as the team's special teams coordinator. During his coaching career, he has worked 15 previous years in the NFL and 11 years at the college level.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

In his first season as Lions special teams coordinator in 2013, Bonamego brought a polished approach to Detroit's kicking, punting and coverage units, which included the emergence of fifth-round draft selection P Sam Martin as a valuable weapon in the Lions' special teams game.

- Martin (40.4) finished 34 yards shy of breaking Jacksonville P Bryan Anger's rookie record for net punting average of 40.8. His 40.4 net average ranked 10th in the NFL, and his 47.2 gross punting average ranked sixth.
- With a 40.4 net punting average, Martin broke the Lions record for single-season net punting average of 39.6 set by Jim Arnold in 1987. He is the first Lions punter to ever finish a season with a 40.0+ net average.
- Martin was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Week 3 after he punted six times for 315 yards and a net average of 40.7 yards, including a long of 72 yards. His 72-yard punt was longest by the Lions since P Tom Skladany had a 74-yard punt vs. Oakland on September 27, 1981.
- After taking over the Lions' return duties in Week 8 vs. Dallas (10/27), WR Jeremy Ross emerged as dangerous threat as a kickoff and punt returner. In Week 14 at Philadelphia, Ross returned a kickoff 98 yards and a punt 58 yards for touchdowns as he became the second player in franchise history to register a punt return touchdown and kickoff return touchdown in the same game (RB Eddie Payton vs. Minnesota December 17, 1977).
- In Ross' nine games at the Lions' go-to return man, he accumulated seven explosive returns (20+-yard punt returns and 40+-yard kickoff returns).
- With a 53-yard field goal in the second quarter against the Packers in Week 5 (10/6), K David Akers became the seventh kicker in Lions history to hit a 50+-yard field goal.
- The Lions coverage teams limited opponents to just 73.4 total kick return yards per game, which includes both punt and kickoff returns. The team's 73.4 yards per game average ranks as the fourth-best by the Lions since 1941 and lowest since 1993 (61.6).
- 2013 also marked the first time Detroit did not yield a punt return or kickoff return for a touchdown since 2004.

While with the Jaguars in 2012, Bonamego oversaw the development of rookie P Bryan Anger, who was selected by the Jaguars in the third round of the 2012 NFL Draft. Anger set franchise records for punting average (47.8) and net punting average (40.8), with both totals leading all rookie punters. He finished sixth in the NFL in punting average and seventh in net punting average.

During the 2011 season, Bonamego was the assistant special teams coach for the New Orleans Saints.

From 2008-10, Bonamego served as the special teams coordinator for the Miami Dolphins, where he developed young specialists including K Dan Carpenter, P Brandon Fields and KR Ted Ginn, Jr.

Bonamego guided Carpenter's development after he signed with the Dolphins as an undrafted rookie in 2008. During his first two seasons, he made 46-of-53 field goal attempts (86.8 pct.). As a rookie, he established a new Dolphins rookie record with 11-straight made field goals. He was selected to the 2009 Pro Bowl after making 25-of-28 attempts.

In 2009, Bonamego's special teams units featured Fields setting a franchise record for net punting average (39.9) and Ginn, Jr. becoming the first player in NFL history to record two kickoff return touchdowns of 100 yards or more in the same game (at NYJ, November 1, 2009). Ginn, Jr. also was the first NFL player in 42 years to have two returns for touchdowns in the same quarter while also recording 299 return yards, the second-most single-game kickoff return yardage total in NFL history. That season, the Dolphins' 2009 special teams units were ranked 10th in the NFL by universally respected Dallas Morning News special teams rankings.

Prior to his time in Miami, Bonamego was the New Orleans Saints special teams coordinator from 2006-07. In 2006, his units played a critical role in the team's 10-6 record, as they claimed the NFC South title and appeared in the NFC Championship game.

Two of the Saints' biggest plays that season occurred on special teams when S Steve Gleason blocked a punt vs. Atlanta that was recovered for a touchdown in the first quarter in the season opener, which was the first post-Katrina game in the Superdome. The Saints also blocked a field goal later in that opening game.

In Week 5 vs. Tampa Bay, RB Reggie Bush returned a punt 65 yards for a game-winning score. The Saints finished 2006 ranked sixth in opponent punt return average (7.0) and fourth in the NFC in kickoff return average (23.0). The Saints did not allow a kickoff return of more than 40 yards.

Bonamego's experience in the NFC North includes a three-year stint as the special teams coordinator for Green Bay from 2003-05. In 2005, the Packers registered the League's longest punt return for a touchdown (85 yards vs. Chi). In 2004, Green Bay finished as one of only four teams in the NFL that did not surrender a return touchdown or have a kick blocked. The Packers allowed only 20.2 yards on kickoff returns and ranked sixth in field goal percentage (85.7). The club had four game-winning field goals in 2004, the most by the team since the 1970 merger.

During his first season in Green Bay (2003), Bonamego's special teams units ranked fourth in field goal percentage, fifth in kick return average and did not allow a blocked punt or field goal. The Packers blocked a field goal and a punt in the same season for the first time since 1997 and won the NFC North title.

Bonamego's first stint in the NFL was from 1999-2002 with the Jacksonville Jaguars. For the first three seasons, Bonamego worked as the assistant special teams coach under legendary NFL special teams coach Frank Gansz and was promoted to special teams coordinator in 2002. In his first season as special teams coordinator, the Jaguars were ranked third by The Dallas Morning News. The unit blocked four kicks (two field goals, two punts) and led the AFC in kick coverage (19.5-yard avg.). The Jaguars also led the AFC in gross and net punting average and were one of only two NFL teams that did not allow a return touchdown or a blocked kick. P Chris Hanson was selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad in 2002.

Before entering the NFL, Bonamego worked 11 years on the college level, including six years at Army (1993-98) and at Lehigh in 1992.

From 1988-91, Bonamego was an assistant coach at Maine. While serving as an assistant coach, he earned a master's degree in physical education in 1992.

In 1987, Bonamego served as the head junior varsity coach at Mt. Pleasant (Mich.) High School, and in that same year he spent time in Europe as a player-coach with the Verona (Italy) Redskins.

Bonamego graduated from Paw Paw (Mich.) High School before moving on to Central Michigan University, where he played wide receiver and quarterback. In 1987, he earned a degree in health fitness from CMU. In 2009, Bonamego gave the graduation commencement speech and received an honorary doctorate degree from Central Michigan. He and his wife, Paulette, have three children – Javier, Giovanni and Bellina.

JIM BOB COOTER

Years in NFL: 6

Jim Bob Cooter joins the Lions offensive coaching staff as the team's quarterbacks coach in 2014 after serving as an offensive assistant with the Denver Broncos last season. Entering his sixth season as an NFL coach, Cooter comes to Detroit after helping guide the Broncos offense en route to a berth in Super Bowl XLVIII in 2013.

With Cooter as a member of the coaching staff, the Broncos offense ranked first in the NFL in multiple categories last season, including total yards per game (465.3), total touchdowns (76), points per game (37.9), and set an NFL single-season record with 606 points scored. Broncos QB Peyton Manning set NFL records in passing yards (5,477) and passing touchdowns (55), and led the NFL in completions (450) as the team earned their third-straight AFC West division title.

Cooter's previous NFL coaching experience includes stops with the Kansas City Chiefs (2012) and Indianapolis Colts (2009-2011). While with the Chiefs, the team ranked first in the AFC (fifth in the NFL) with 149.7 rushing yards per game as RB Jamaal Charles was named to his second Pro Bowl after racking up 1,509 yards and five rushing touchdowns.

During his three seasons in Indianapolis, he served three years on the offensive staff under offensive coordinators Clyde Christensen and Tom Moore. GUNTHER CUNNINGHAM

Senior Coaching Assistant
Years in NFL: 33

Gunther Cunningham is a 45-year coaching veteran on the college and professional levels, including the past 32 seasons in the NFL. He rejoins the Lions coaching staff in 2014 as senior coaching assistant after serving as the team's assistant head coach/defensive coordinator for five seasons. Known for his intense and straightforward coaching approach, Cunningham has been a defensive coordinator in the League for 15 seasons and a head coach (Kansas City, 1999-2000) for two.

Cunningham's defenses in Detroit were guided by the ability to attack the quarterback and generate disruptive plays. Last season, Cunningham was instrumental in the development of rookie DEs Ezekiel Ansah and Devin Taylor, who each recorded 8.0 and 2.5 sacks, respectively, while DT Ndamukong Suh was selected to his third Pro Bowl in four years. Ansah's eight sacks also led all NFL rookies in 2013.

The 2012 edition of the Detroit Lions defense ranked 13th overall in the NFL in total defense and seventh in the NFC, the highest Lions ranking since 1995, despite starting 16 different lineup configurations and 14 different lineups in the secondary. Cunningham's dedication to a consistent pass rush proved evident once again in 2012 as the Lions' defensive line applied heavy pressure to opponent offenses week in and week out, accounting for 31 of the team's 34 sacks. Since 2010, the Lions rank sixth in the NFL in combined sacks and tackles for loss on rushing plays with 338 under Cunningham.

From, 2004-08, Cunningham served as the Kansas City Chiefs defensive coordinator during his second stint with the organization. In 2008, he also coached the team's linebackers as the Chiefs defense began a transition with six new starters and endured numerous injuries throughout the season. From 2004-07, his imprint on the defense was prevalent in several areas as Kansas City's pass defense ranked fifth in the NFL in 2007, allowing only 188.9 yards per game.

Under former head coach Jeff Fisher, Cunningham served as the Tennessee Titans assistant head coach/linebackers coach from 2001-03. In those three seasons, the Titans defense helped the franchise earn two playoff berths. In 2003, Tennessee's defense led the NFL in both rushing defense (80.9 yards per game) and opponents' third-down percentage (27.7). That year, LB Keith Bullock earned a spot in the Pro Bowl under Cunningham's tutelage as his position coach.

As head coach for the Chiefs from 1999-00, Cunningham compiled a 16-16 (.500) record. In 1999, the Chiefs were 9-7 as he became the first coach in Chiefs history to claim nine wins in his first season as head coach.

Cunningham not only has compiled great defensive units, but he has coached and mentored several Pro Bowl and All-Pro players, including Suh (2011, 2012, 2014) and DT Nick Fairley (2014 alternate). He has shared a special bond as a mentor to the late, great nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas, who concluded his illustrious career as the all-time leading sack artist in Chiefs history with 126.5 QB takedowns. Cunningham served as Thomas' position coach in 1997, helping him earn his final Pro Bowl invitation. He also coached DE Neil Smith (second in Chiefs history with 86.5 sacks) and DE Jared Allen, who earned his first spot in the Pro Bowl after the 2007 season when he led the League in sacks with 15.5.

Prior to his arrival in Kansas City, Cunningham spent four seasons (1991-94) with the Los Angeles Raiders, as linebackers coach (1991), defensive coordinator (1992-93) and defensive line coach (1994). He was also the San Diego Chargers defensive line coach for six seasons (1985-90) after originally being hired by the team's player personnel department.

In 1982, Cunningham entered the NFL coaching ranks when he joined the Baltimore Colts coaching staff as the team's defensive line/linebackers coach from 1982-84, learning from the late Bud Carson. Before entering the NFL ranks, his previous pro coaching experience was as the defensive line/linebackers coach for the CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats in 1981 with head coach Frank Kush, who also hired Cunningham in Baltimore.

As a college coach, Cunningham's last stop was at California, where he coached the Bears defensive line from 1979-80, linebackers in 1978 and secondary in 1977. Prior his stop in Berkeley, he coached at Stanford from 1973-76. He was hired by head coach Jack Christensen, a Hall of Fame defensive back for the Detroit Lions in the 1950s and a member of the Lions 75th Season All-time Team. While at Stanford, he coached the defensive line from 1974-76 and was the assistant offensive line and freshmen coach during his first year in 1973.

Cunningham worked at the University of Arkansas in 1972 on a staff headed by Frank Broyles that included Joe Gibbs and Raymond Berry. Prior to that, Cunningham began his coaching career at the University of Oregon, his alma mater, in 1969. He was with the Ducks program for three years from 1969-71 where he began his longtime relationship with another noted defensive coach, George Seifert. Cunningham was a graduate of Oregon and was a linebacker and kicker for the Ducks from 1966-68.

After playing his prep football at Lompoc High School in Lompoc, California, he was then recruited to play at Allan Hancock College by Hall of Fame coach John Madden. Madden left the school prior to Cunningham's freshman year and was replaced as head coach by Ernie Zampese.

Cunningham, who became a naturalized U.S. citizen on April 6, 2010, is just one of four foreign-born individuals in League history to ever serve as an NFL head coach, joining Hugo Bezdek (Cleveland Rams, 1937-38), Jock Sutherland (Pittsburgh, 1946-47) and Al Saunders (San Diego, 1986-88). Born in Munich, Germany, he moved to Greenfield, Mass., at the age of 10 in 1956 with his mother, Katharina, and his adoptive father, Air Force Sergeant Garner Cunningham.

Cunningham was born June 19, 1946. He and his wife, René, have two children, Natalie and Adam.

Kris Kocurek enters his sixth season as defensive line coach after joining the Lions as Detroit's assistant defensive line coach in 2009. He had spent the previous season coaching defensive line at Stephen F. Austin State.

LIONS COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

Kocurek further established himself as a molder of young talent along the defensive line as the 2013 Lions front featured promising seasons from rookie DEs Ezekiel Ansah and Devin Taylor. Coupled with the presence of veteran DTs Ndamukong Suh and Nick Fairley, the Lions defensive line accounted for 25.5 of the team's 33 sacks in 2013 and recorded seven forced fumbles and two safeties. Suh earned his third Pro Bowl bid in four years and Fairley was named a Pro Bowl alternate.

- In his first season with the Lions after being drafted fifth overall, Ansah led the team in sacks in 2013 with eight, the second most sacks by a Lions rookie since Suh had 10 in 2010.
- Ansah recorded three multi-sack games, posting two sacks at Washington (9/22), vs. Tampa Bay (11/24) and vs. Green Bay (11/24). His eight sacks also led all rookie players.

- Fairley's six sacks were tied for eighth among all defensive tackles, and Suh ranked seventh among defensive tackles in combined sacks and tackles for loss on rushing plays with 11.5.
- The Lions defensive line had their best outing of the season on Thanksgiving Day (11/28) vs. Green Bay, sacking Packers QB Matt Flynn seven times, forcing a fumble and recording a safety.
- Rookie DE Devin Taylor also emerged as a valuable asset at defensive end as he finished the season with 2.5 sacks and two forced fumbles.
- The Lions defensive line ranked third in total negative plays with 62.5 in 2012. (31.0 sacks, 31.5 tackles for loss on run plays.)
- DE Cliff Avril and Suh led the team in sacks with 9.5 and eight respectively, in 2012, while Kocurek also helped guide Fairley to a breakout season. Fairley was an internal force up front for the Lions, finishing with 5.5 sacks, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.
- Of the team's 41 sacks in 2011, 35 were generated by the Lions defensive line (85.4-percent), tying for fourth among NFL defensive lines.
- In 2010, Kocurek's first season as the Lions' defensive line coach, Detroit had the most-improved pass rush in the NFL. Even though teams threw the ball nine times less against the Lions in 2010 season than they did in 2009, the Lions picked up 18 more sacks, which accounted for an increase of 3.28 sacks per pass play.
- Kocurek was also instrumental in Suh's development as a rookie in 2010, who led all NFL defensive tackles with 10.0 sacks and had 66 tackles (49 solo). Suh was voted as a starter for the NFC Pro Bowl squad and was named to the AP All-Pro team. He was also the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year. During his rookie season, he set a new team record for sacks by a rookie since the stat became official in 1982.

In 2009, Kocurek helped rookie DT Sammie Hill, who was drafted out of Stillman College in the fourth round (115th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft, emerge as an opening day starter. He finished the season with 26 tackles (14 solo) and two fumble recoveries in 13 games while making the transition from a small college prospect to NFL starter (12 starts).

In 2007, Kocurek served as the assistant head coach and defensive line coach at West Texas A&M where he helped coach the Buffaloes to the 2007 Lone Star Conference title as well as the second round of the NCAA Division II playoffs. The Buffaloes became one of the top defensive units in the LSC and led the conference in scoring defense.

Under Kocurek's guidance, Brandon Swain became one of the top defensive players at the Division II level and was a 2007 First-Team Daktronics, AFCA and AP Little All-American and conference defensive lineman of the year after recording 24.5 tackles for losses and 14 sacks.

Kocurek served as the defensive line coach at Texas A&M-Commerce in 2006 and helped guide the Lions' top-ranked defensive unit, which finished No. 1 in total and scoring defense.

For two seasons (2004-05) Kocurek served as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M-Kingsville and coached the Javelinas' defensive line where he was active in the development of Wilbert Martin, who was twice selected as First Team All-LSC and was a free agent signee of the Baltimore Ravens.

Kocurek began his coaching career in 2003 as a student assistant at Texas Tech. While in Lubbock, he assisted with the defensive linemen and helped coach the Red Raiders to a 2003 Houston Bowl win over Navy.

Prior to coaching, Kocurek spent two years in the NFL with the Tennessee Titans (2002) and the Seattle Seahawks (2001) after being selected in the seventh round (237th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft by Seattle.

TONY ODEN

Defensive Backs/Cornerbacks
Years with Lions: 1
Years in NFL: 11

A 10-year coaching veteran when it comes to tutoring NFL defensive backs, Tony Oden joins the Lions coaching staff in 2014 as the team's defensive backs/cornerbacks coach. Last season, Oden was the secondary coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he specialized in the development of the team's cornerbacks.

Under Oden's guidance in 2013, the Buccaneers defense finished tied for third in the NFL in interceptions with 21, fourth in interception return yards with 338 and tied for seventh in interception return touchdowns with three. Twelve of the team's 21 picks last season came from the Tampa Bay secondary, including a team-leading three from rookie CB Johnthan Banks. CB Darrelle Revis was also named to his fifth Pro Bowl as the leader of Oden's position group after missing most of the 2012 season with an ACL injury.

Prior to his time in Tampa, Oden was the Jacksonville Jaguars defensive backs coach in 2012 after spending six seasons (2006-2011) with the New Orleans Saints. While with the Saints, he was a member of a coaching staff that won three NFC South division titles (2006, 2009, 2011) and helped guide the team to a victory over the Indianapolis Colts in Super Bowl XLIV. Among the players Oden has worked with include two of the NFL's premier safeties in Roman Harper and Darren Sharper. In 2009, Sharper set an NFL record with 376 interception return yards on nine picks, while in 2011, Harper recorded the second-most sacks by an NFL defensive back in a single season with 7.5. Oden's Saints teams twice finished in the Top-5 in passing yards allowed during his six seasons, ranking third in 2006 (178.4 yards/g) and fourth in 2010 (193.9 yards/g).

Oden's NFL coaching roots began in 2004 when he worked with the Houston Texans as a defensive assistant/assistant defensive backs coach. In his two years with Houston, the Texans set franchise records in interceptions (22) and interception return yards (393).

From 1996-2003, Oden held various defensive assistant coaching positions at Eastern Michigan (2003), East Carolina (2000-02), Army (1998-99), Boston College (1997) and Millersville (Pa.) University (1996). He is a native of Cleveland Heights, Ohio where he was a two-time all-conference selection at linebacker for Baldwin-Wallace College. ROBERT PRINCE

Wide Receivers
Years in NFL: 7

A seasoned veteran when it comes to working with receivers, Robert Prince rejoins the NFL ranks in 2014 as the Lions wide receivers coach after coaching at the college level for the past four seasons. He most recently served as the offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Boise State from 2011-13 after spending six years developing offensive talent in the NFL. His previous stops in professional football include assistant positions with the Seattle Seahawks (2009), Jacksonville Jaguars (2007-08) and Atlanta Falcons (2004-06) as he brings a cumulative 25 years of coaching experience to Detroit.

Prince was a key cog in crafting one of college football's most potent offensive attacks in recent years while guiding the Boise State receiving corps. In his first year as offensive coordinator in 2012, Prince led the offense to an 11-2 record despite losing seven starters, as five players were named All-Mountain West for the first time in their careers. In 2011, after returning to the university from spending the previous seven seasons coaching in the NFL, the Broncos' offense ranked in the Top-10 in multiple national categories, including pass efficiency (4th, 171.57), scoring (5th, 44.23) and total offense (9th, 481.31).

Prince's most recent NFL coaching opportunity came in 2009 when he coached the Seattle Seahawks wide receivers working as the assistant wide receivers coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars from 2007-08. During the 2007 season, Prince guided Jaguars WR Reggie Williams to a single-season franchise record 10 touchdowns. Prior to Jacksonville, Prince got his NFL start as an offensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons, where he served under running backs coach Ollie Wilson. Working exclusively with running backs and tight ends his first two seasons, Prince helped Atlanta to lead the League in rushing in both of those years.

Before beginning his first run with Boise State in 2001, Prince was the wide receivers coach at Portland State in 1998 and was later promoted to offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 1999 and 2000. His previous coaching stints include the Japanese X-League (1996-97), Fort Lewis (Colo.) College (1994-95) and Sacramento State (1992-93). He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at both Montana State in 1991 and Humboldt State (Calif.), his alma mater, in 1989 and 1990.

Prince's NFL roots trace back to his time serving in three different minority training camp internships with the San Francisco 49ers (2000, 2002) and the San Diego Chargers (2001).

A graduate of Humboldt State in 1990, Prince went on to earn his master's degree from the university in 1992. He is married to his wife, Susan, and they are the parents of three children – daughters Hayden and Jasmin and son Tyson. Prince was born May 8, 1965.

BILL SHERIDAN

Linebackers
Years in NFL: 10

Bill Sheridan takes over the Lions linebacker corps after serving as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defensive coordinator the past two seasons. A Detroit native and former assistant coach at Royal Oak's Shrine High School (1981-84), Sheridan's scope of defensive coaching history extends deep into the NFL and college ranks. He has held positions as a linebackers coach with the New York Giants (2005-08) and Miami Dolphins (2010-11) and was also the Giants defensive coordinator in 2009. He was a member of the Giants' championship run in Super Bowl XLII when they defeated New England, 17-14.

Sheridan's presence in Tampa Bay was felt immediately as he helped the Buccaneers' run defense go from last to first in the NFL as the defense went from holding opponents to 156.1 yards per game to 82.5 per game. The Bucs also led the League in opponent negative plays and tackles for loss in 2012. In 2013, Sheridan's defense finished tied for third in total takeaways with 31 (10 FF, 21 INT).

With a knack for developing young defensive talent, Sheridan was instrumental in the rise of Buccaneers LB Lavonte David and DT Gerald McCoy over the past two seasons. David finished the 2013 season tied for fifth in the NFL with a career-high five interceptions and was one of only two linebackers in the NFL to record at least five picks, while McCoy ranked fourth in sacks among defensive tackles with 9.5. McCoy was named to his second-consecutive Pro Bowl and both players were named AP First Team All-Pro in 2013. Sheridan also played a key role in the revival of veteran CB Darrelle Revis, who returned from injury to earn a fifth Pro Bowl nod in his first season with the Buccaneers.

As the Dolphins linebackers coach from 2010-11, Sheridan led a fierce group in the likes of Cameron Wake, Jason Taylor, Karlos Dansby and Kevin Burnett. Wake's 14 sacks in 2010 ranked third in the NFL and are the eighth-most in Dolphins history.

Prior to his stint in Miami, Sheridan spent five seasons with the New York Giants as linebackers coach (2005-08) and defensive coordinator (2009). He helped mold LB Antonio Pierce into a Pro Bowler and leader of the 2007 Super Bowl championship defensive unit.

Sheridan's coaching career began in 1981 at Shrine (Mich.) High School in Royal Oak where he worked for four seasons as an assistant coach. After completing a graduate assistant position at Michigan from 1985-86, he went on to hold assistant coaching positions at Maine (1987-88), Cincinnati (1989-91), Army (1992-97), Michigan State (1998-2000), Notre Dame (2001) and Michigan (2002-04).

Sheridan was born January 27, 1959 and is a native of Detroit, Mich. He attended De La Salle High School and later earned four letters as a linebacker at Grand Valley State. He and his wife, Jaycine, have four children: Joe, Nick, Mark and Natalie.

ALAN WILLIAMS

Defensive Backs/Safeties
Years with Lions: 1
Years in NFL: 14

With more than 10 years of experience coaching NFL defensive backs, Alan Williams joins the Lions staff in 2014 as the team's defensive backs/safeties coach after serving as the Minnesota Vikings defensive coordinator for the last two seasons (2012-13). He enters his 14th season coaching in the NFL, with previous stops with the Indianapolis Colts (2002-11) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2001). In 2006, he mentored the Colts' defensive backs en route to the team's 29-17 win over the Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XLI.

During Williams' tenure as defensive coordinator in Minnesota (2012-13), the Vikings were tied for seventh in sacks with 85 and ninth in tackles for loss with 91. In 2013, the Vikings defense overcame a variety of injuries as three players in the defensive backfield, S Andrew Sendejo, CB Marcus Sherels and CB Shaun Prater, logged their first career interceptions under Williams' watch. Veteran DE Jared Allen led the team in sacks with 11.5, his seventh straight season with 10+ sacks, as fellow DE Brian Robison recorded a career-best nine.

In his first season with the Vikings, he oversaw a unit that drastically improved in overall defense as the team won its final four games to earn an NFC Wild Card berth after missing the postseason the previous two seasons. That season, Allen and LB Chad Greenway were selected to their fifth- and second-consecutive Pro Bowls, respectively, as the defense improved to No.16 in total defense after their No. 21 finish in 2011.

Williams spent a decade coaching the Indianapolis Colts secondary where he worked with some of the League's most elite defensive backfield talent, including S Antoine Bethea and S Bob Sanders. From 2002-11, the Colts ranked in the Top-6 in the NFL in passing defense five times and finished out of the Top-15 only once. Williams guided Bethea (2007, 2009) and Sanders (2005, 2007) to two Pro Bowl seasons each. Sanders was named AP Defensive Player of the Year in 2007, the first Colts player to ever receive the honor.

From 2002-10, the Colts earned nine-consecutive playoff berths, during which the defense recorded 18 interceptions in the playoffs, including seven during the team's playoff-run to their Super Bowl XLI win over Chicago in 2006. Williams' secondary also helped the Colts defense in 2008 set an NFL record for fewest passing touchdowns allowed with six, the lowest number ever surrendered in a 16-game season.

Williams began his NFL coaching career with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2001 as a defensive assistant under former head coach Tony Dungy, where he worked with All-Pro players in the likes of John Lynch and Ronde Barber. That season, Williams coached alongside current Cowboys Assistant Head Coach of Defense Monte Kiffin and Steelers Head Coach Mike Tomlin as the Bucs finished 9-7 and earned an NFC Wild Card berth.

A former standout running back at William & Mary from 1988-91, Williams later returned to his alma mater where he coached the running backs and defensive backs for five seasons (1996-2000). His first coaching stint was as an assistant head coach at Norview (Va.) High School where he kindled his craft for working with running backs and defensive backs from 1992-95.

Williams was born November 4, 1969. He is a native of Norfolk, Va. and he and his wife, Lisa, have three children – Christian, Solomon and Nathan.

BRIAN XANDERS

Senior Personnel Executive
Years with Lions: 2
Years in NFL: 21

Xanders is in his second season with the Lions, following a five-year stint with the Denver Broncos, including the last four seasons as the Broncos' general manager. For the Detroit Lions, he assists the player personnel department in college scouting, pro personnel, and scouting systems development. In 2013, he assisted the Lions' personnel department in acquiring 10 new starters -- four from free agency and six from the NFL Draft. ESPN ranked the draft class as the best of 2013 after the season.

This season marks his 21st NFL year which includes him serving in a variety of player personnel, scouting, football operations and coaching staff roles during his time at three different teams (Lions, Broncos and Falcons). He has direct experience in player evaluations with the last 18 NFL Draft classes and 14 Free Agency periods.

During his tenure as the Broncos' general manager, Broncos won the AFC West Division in 2011-2012, where 55/61 players (90-percent) were acquired through the draft, free agency or re-signed during his tenure as GM. Denver became only the third team since the 1970 NFL merger to win its division and a playoff game with a new head coach following four wins the previous season.

The Broncos executed high-producing NFL Draft classes over the last three years, which finished first in the NFL in playtime and second in games started during a three year period, 2010-12. There are twelve primary starters from those draft classes, including four Pro Bowl players: LB Von Miller, WR Demaryius Thomas, TE Julius Thomas and OG Zane Beadles (Jaguars). There were also eight other Pro Bowl players who were acquired, signed or extended during his tenure: QB Peyton Manning (FA, 2012), SS Brian Dawkins (UFA, 2009-11), WR Brandon Lloyd (FA, 2009-11), RB Willis McGahee (FA, 2011), CB Champ Bailey (re-signed, 2011), DE Elvis Dumervil (re-signed, 2010), WR Brandon Marshall (re-signed, 2010), and OT Ryan Clady (1st round, 2008).

During his tenure in Denver, he also supervised the day-to-day operations of the Broncos' college scouting, pro scouting, labor operations/salary cap, equipment, medical, video, football systems and turf operations departments. He served on NFL College Advisory, NFL Combine Selection and the NFL Statistics Committees. He was originally hired by Denver as assistant general manager in 2008.

Senior Personnel Advisor
Years in NFL: 27

James Harris joined the Lions player personnel department after spending six seasons (2003-08) as the Jacksonville Jaguars vice president of player personnel. While directing the Jaguars player personnel area, he oversaw all player acquisitions, including: college draft, free agency, undrafted player signings and the scouting of players in other professional leagues.

Known affectionately as "Shack," Harris has 38 years of NFL experience, with the past 26 years working in player personnel and scouting.

Harris originally began his front office career in 1987 when he joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a scout, a position he would hold for six years (1987-92). He then moved on to the New York Jets and served as the team's assistant general manager from 1993-96. In 1997, Harris was named the director of pro personnel for the Baltimore Ravens. He was a member of the Ravens' player personnel department from 1997-2002, and he earned a Super Bowl ring with the Ravens as the team claimed a world championship with a victory in Super Bowl XXXV.

In 1969, Harris was drafted by Buffalo in the eighth round of the draft—an achievement of its own right since he was just one of a few blacks ever drafted at quarterback at the time. He would play for the Bills from 1969-71, and he would become the first black in NFL history to open the season as a starting quarterback. Harris then played for Los Angeles from 1973-76. While with the Rams, he was the Pro Bowl MVP in 1975 after throwing two touchdowns in a 14-13 win over the AFC. In 1976, he led the NFC with an 89.8 passer rating, which included a 436-yard outing against the Miami Dolphins. He concluded his career in San Diego where he played for the Chargers from 1977-81.

Harris has also impacted the community through the Shack Harris Doug Williams Foundation, which is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization dedicated to creating opportunities for economically disadvantaged youth. The foundation, established in 2005 with fellow NFL quarterback pioneer and Grambling State alumnus Doug Williams, provides grants for after-school initiatives, leadership development, mentoring programs and minority higher education assistance.

In 2010, Harris and fellow former quarterback Doug Williams were integral parts in starting the Black College Football Hall of Fame, and his additional front office work has been recognized by numerous organizations. For two years in a row (2003 and 2004), he was one of the top-50 most influential minorities in sports by Sports Illustrated, and in 2005 he received recognition as one of "the most powerful African Americans in sports" by Black Enterprise. In March 2006, he was awarded the Fritz Pollard Alliance's Paul "Tank" Younger Award that recognized his efforts to level the playing field and improve life for minorities. In February 2007, William Rhoden featured Harris as a member of the Field Generals in ESPN's "Third and a Mile: The Trials and Triumphs of the Black Quarterback." Last year, Harris received the Onyx Awards Achievement in Sports by Onyx Magazine.

Prior to being drafted in 1969, Harris played for one of college football's most legendary coaches, Eddie Robinson, at Grambling State. During each of his four seasons (1965-68), the Tigers won or shared the SWAC title. He was named MVP of the 1967 Orange Blossom Classic and was named Pittsburgh Courier Player of the Year in 1968. As a legendary athlete and quarterback at Carroll High School in his hometown of Monroe, La., Harris received two-time All-State honors as he led Carroll to two unbeaten seasons and a state title.

Second-year punter who took over the Lions' punting, holding and kickoff duties in 2013, and established himself as one of the best young legs in the NFL.

- Martin finished the 2013 season with a net punting average of 40.40 and broke the franchise record (official statistic since 1967) for net punting average. He is the first punter in franchise history to finish the season with a 40+-yard net punting average. Martin surpassed the previous record held by P Jim Arnold (39.63) in 1987.
  - He became the second rookie punter to finish the season with a 40+-yard net punting average. His 40.40 net punting average is the second-highest in League history among rookies (since net punting became official in 1976) behind only Jacksonville P Bryan Anger (40.85) in 2012.
  - He also recorded the second highest (gross) punting average by a rookie (minimum 20 punts) in NFL history. His 47.21 ranks behind Anger's 47.84 that he accumulated in 2012. Both punters, Martin and Anger, were coached by current Lions Special Teams Coordinator John Bonamego.
- Martin tallied a (gross) punting average of 47.21 on the season (72 punts for 3,399 yards). Martin has the third highest single-season punting average in team history and he is the first Lions punter in 50 years (Hall of Fame P/S Yale Lary 48.94 in 1963) to finish the season with a 47+-yard punting average. His 2013 output trails only Yale Lary's 1963 total, which is a team single-season record, and Lary's 48.44 average in 1961.
- Martin broke the team's rookie record for punting average (47.2) by surpassing P/RB Bob Cifer's 45.6 average in 1946.
- At Cleveland (10/13/13), Martin became the first Lions punter to record 5+ punts, 47.0+ net average, 3+ inside the 20 and 0 touchbacks in a game since net punting became an official statistic in 1976.

  - Among Martin's punts was a 72-yarder. It was the longest punt recorded by the Lions since P Tom Skladany had a 74-yard punt vs. Oakland September 27, 1981.
  - The 72-yard punt by Martin was the second-longest in team history by a rookie, and the longest since P Bob Cifers nailed a 73-yard punt as a rookie vs. Green Bay November 17, 1946.
  - Martin's average of 52.5 was the highest single-game average by a Lions punter with at least six punts since P Pat Studstill recorded a 53.0 average on seven punts vs. Chicago September 11, 1966. It is the second-highest punting average with a minimum of six punts in a game since 1960.

- 2011 Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year.
- Voted by fans the 2012 ESPY for Best Comeback Athlete.
- Voted by his teammates for the Chuck Hughes Most Improved Player Award in 2011.
- During the Lions' dramatic 38-37 last second, come-from-behind win against Cleveland at Ford Field when he set NFL rookie passing records for yards (422) and tied a record for touchdowns (five), Stafford was mic'd up by NFL Films for that memorable win. Stafford suffered a shoulder injury on the last timed play of regulation. Following a pass interference penalty in the end zone and a Browns timeout, Stafford forced himself back on the field for one more throw that resulted in the game winning touchdown to TE Brandon Pettigrew. As published in the Detroit Free Press: NFL Films president Steve Sabol said Stafford "earned a lasting place in the cinematic folklore of the NFL." Stafford was wired for sound when he suffered an AC joint separation, came back and threw the winning touchdown with no time left against the Browns. Sabol called it "the most dramatic player wiring ever" -- and NFL Films has wired more than 350 players since 1965.
- Was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week and was voted Rookie of the Week for Week 11 of the 2009 season.
- Attended Highland Park High School in Dallas, Texas, the same high school that Lions Hall of Famers QB Bobby Layne and RB Doak Walker attended. Layne and Walker led the Lions to NFL Championships in 1952 and 1953. Layne also led the team to the 1957 NFL Championship.

- Drafted by the Detroit Lions in the third round (76th overall) of the 2014 NFL Draft.

PRO

An imposing force along the offensive line, Swanson possesses the versatility to play both the center and guard positions, and will study under long-time Lions C Dominic Raiola in 2014. Known for his impressive string of 50-consecutive starts during his time at Arkansas, Swanson checks in with a booming 6-5, 312-pound frame that earned him the title of "the next great center" from many professional scouts.

COLLEGE

Concluded his college tenure as a Razorback with the second-longest active starting streak in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision ranks, having started all 50 games that he played in as a two-time captain at Arkansas. His consecutive starts tied the school career-record established by Jerry Franklin (2008-11).

- After being named captain as a junior in 2012, Swanson graded out at 90-percent for blocking consistency, recording 242 knockdowns/key blocks through 24 appearances in his final two seasons. He was responsible for 39 touchdown-resulting blocks.

2013: Named team captain for the second-consecutive season, only the 11th Razorback player to serve back-to-back captain terms. A consensus First Team All-SEC selection, Swanson started each of the team's 12 contests as a senior, tying the school career-record as he extended his streak to 50 consecutive starts. Led a young group of linemen in his final season at Arkansas to rank third in the nation in the fewest quarterback sacks allowed (eight for minus 75 yards) behind only Notre Dame (seven) and Toledo (six).

- Helped RB Jonathan Williams pave the way to become the first freshman in SEC history to begin his career with three-straight 100-yard rushing games. The Razorbacks produced a total of eight 100-yard rushing performances that season.
- Led the conference's offensive linemen and the nation's centers with a blocking consistency of 90.4-percent, as he joined Barrett Jones of Alabama (90.4-percent in 2012) and Maurkice Pouncey of Florida (90.3-percent in 2009) as the only centers in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision ranks to register a blocking grade of 90-percent or better since the turn of the century in 2000.
- Registered 134 key blocks/knockdowns on 775 offensive snaps, along with producing 19 touchdown blocks for an offense that reached the end zone 29 times.
- Reached a streak of 301-consecutive pass plays without allowing a quarterback sack.

2012: Earned Second Team All-SEC honors as a junior in his first season as team captain. Led the nation's centers with an 89.6-percent blocking consistency grade, totaling 108 knockdowns/key blocks that included 20 touchdown-resulting blocks for an offense that reached the end zone 35 times.

- Anchored the Razorbacks offense to help the team establish a 3,000-yard passer for the fourth-straight year. QB Tyler Wilson led the SEC in passing, while WR Cobi Hamilton led the conference in receptions per game and receiving yards per game.
- Swanson and company finished third in the conference in fewest sacks allowed (1.6 per game) in 2012.

2011: Started all 13 games en route to an 11-2 record as Arkansas paced the SEC in total offense with 438.1 yards per game and scoring offense with 36.7 points per game. The Razorbacks became just the fifth school, and the first since 2001, to lead the conference in total offense, passing offense and scoring offense in a season since the SEC was organized in 1933.

2010: Selected to the Freshman All-SEC team after taking over center duties early in the season. Started all 13 games as he was part of the only offensive line in the league to have the same five players start every game during the 2010 schedule. Helped the Razorbacks become the only team in the country to boast a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and five 600-yard receivers.

PERSONAL

Prepped at Kingwood (Texas) High School, where he was rated as a three-star prospect and ranked as the nation's 33rd-best offensive guard in the prep ranks. Received first team all-state honors from the Texas Sports Writers Association and second team accolades from the state's coaches association as a senior in 2008.

- Named one of 10 finalists for the Greater Houston Area Offensive Player of the Year, and was also the only lineman among those finalists.
- Majored in sociology at Arkansas.
- Son of Gina and Todd Swanson.

SUMMARY
The Detroit Lions opened their 2013 season at Ford Field against the Minnesota Vikings. The Lions opened the game with the ball and drove down inside the Vikings 20-yard line, but a botched hold from rookie P Sam Martin cost the Lions a field goal and turned the ball over on downs. The Vikings made them pay as Minnesota RB Adrian Peterson took his first hand-off 78 yards to the end zone to give the Vikings an early 7-0 lead. Detroit would respond with a 10 -play, 60-yard drive as K David Akers booted a 32-yard field goal to cut the lead to 7-3. After another Akers field goal made it 7-6 Minnesota, the Vikings struck again early in the second quarter with a four-yard dash for Peterson's second rushing score of the game with 12:17 remaining in the second quarter. The Lions would punt twice and cough the ball up with a TE Brandon Pettigrew fumble, but the Vikings were unable to capitalize. Detroit would take advantage of a late Minnesota turnover and RB Joique Bell punched in a two-yard TD run with 10 seconds left in the half. Bell opened the scoring in the second half with his second touchdown run of the game to give the Lions a 20-14 lead. After a K Blair Walsh field goal, RB Reggie Bush electrified the home field crowd with a bursting 77-yard touchdown reception, pushing the lead to 27-17. QB Matthew Stafford would hit rookie TE Joe Fauria late in the fourth quarter for the icing on the cake in a 34-24 win for Detroit. DT Nick Fairley recored 1.5 sacks and recovered a fumble for the Lions defense as LB DeAndre Levy, LB Stephen Tulloch and S Glover Quin each tallied their first interception of the season.

SUMMARY
Looking to secure their first win at Arizona since 1993, the Lions fell short in the desert, 21-25, despite a two-touchdown, 116-yard performance from WR Calvin Johnson. After a scoreless first quarter from both teams, the Cardinals opened up the scoring in the second quarter with a 47-yard field goal by K Jay Feely to give Arizona the early 3-0 lead. It did not take long, though, for the Lions to respond as QB Matthew Stafford connected with Johnson on a crossing route as Megatron took it to the house 72 yards for the Lions' first score of the game. The Cardinals bounced back with a 36-yard touchdown pass from QB Carson Palmer to RB Andre Ellington to regain the lead, 10-7, but Johnson would again take control as he hauled in a 3-yard fade pass from Stafford to give him his second score of the day. The Lions opened the second half leading 14-10 before Feely's second field goal made it a one-point game. On a crucial 3rd-and-4 play in the heart of a Cardinals late-third-quarter drive. LB DeAndre Levy picked off Palmer and returned it 66 yards for a touchdown. The interception was Levy's sixth of his career and the second returned for a touchdown. Two more Feely field goals (43, 33 yards), however, would cut Detroit's lead to 21-19 as Palmer engineered a seven-play, 30-yard drive that ended with a one-yard touchdown run by RB Rashard Mendenhall to put Arizona up four with two minutes remaining. The Lions were unable to convert on 4th-and-4 in the game's waning seconds as the Cardinals finished out the clock to seal the win, 25-21.

SUMMARY
The Detroit Lions defeated the Washington Redskins 27-20 in Week 3 (9/22), marking the first time the team has ever won in Washington D.C. since the team moved from Boston. The Redskins drew first blood as CB DeAngelo Hall picked off QB Matthew Stafford and returned it 17 yards for a touchdown to give Washington an early 7-0 lead. Filling in for an injured RB Reggie Bush, RB Joique Bell responded with a 12-yard touchdown run late first quarter to even things at 7-7. Bell finished with 20 carries for 63 yards (3.2 avg) and one touchdown in the game. Soon after, TE Joseph Fauria continued to establish himself as a threat in the Lions' potent offense as the undrafted rookie put the Lions ahead 14-7 with a five-yard touchdown grab. The Lions would add a 32-yard field goal from K David Akers just before halftime following a 30-yard touchdown run from Redskins RB Alfred Morris, as Detroit took the lead into halftime, 17-14. In the third quarter, Redskins K John Potter booted a 43-yard field goal to tie the score at 17-17. Another field goal from Akers (28 yards) gave the Lions yet another narrow lead as WR Calvin Johnson followed up with crucial 11-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to put the Lions up 10 with 3:56 remaining in the game. The Lions held Washington to a field goal in the waning minutes as the defense was able to stave off a final Redskins possession to secure the win 27-20. Stafford finished the game 25-of-42 passing for 385 yards and two touchdowns, while Johnson and WR Nate Burleson each finished with 115 and 116 yards, respectively.

SUMMARY
In a Week 4 NFC North matchup with the rival Chicago Bears, the Lions defeated Chicago 40-32, moving them into first place in the division. Trailing 6-3 after a pair of David Akers field goals, Bears RB Matt Forte escaped down the right sideline and scampered 53-yards for the touchdown at the beginning of the second quarter. The Lions would answer with another Akers field goal to cut the Chicago lead to 10-9. On the next Detroit possession, QB Matthew Stafford would plunge his way across the goal line for a one-yard touchdown, giving the Lions a 16-10 lead. The defense then stepped up as S Glover Quin picked off a Jay Cutler pass and returned it 57 yards to the Bears two-yard line. The very next play, Stafford found WR Calvin Johnson in the corner of the end zone for a touchdown. The Lions were not done yet as RB Reggie Bush leaped and juked his way to a 37-yard touchdown run to push the lead to 30-10, capping off a 27-point second quarter for Detroit. The second half was highlighted by a strip-sack for DT Ndamukong Suh in which DT Nick Fairley scooped up and took it into the end zone for a score. The Bears would put pressure on the Lions defense late in the fourth quarter with 16 straight points, but an onside kick recovered by WR Kris Durham sealed the eight point victory for the Lions..

SUMMARY
Looking to remain perfect in the NFC North in Week 5, the Lions fell just short to the Green Bay Packers by a score of 22-9 at Lambeau Field. The Packers connected on five field goal tries and one long 83-yard pass from QB Aaron Rodgers to WR James Jones in the third quarter to seal the victory over the Lions. Detroit managed just 286 yards of net offense without WR Calvin Johnson due to a knee injury. RB Reggie Bush struggled to find space and was bottled up for most of the day, finishing with 69 total yards on 17 offensive touches. Green Bay jumped out to an early 6-0 lead after two field goals from K Mason Crosby. The Lions cut the Packers' lead in half with a 53-yard field goal from K David Akers to give them their only points in the first half. Despite the Lions defense holding the Green Bay offense to field goals, the Packers rattled off 16 unanswered points in the second half, highlighted by the Jones touchdown in the third quarter. The Lions scored their only touchdown with 2:06 remaining when QB Matthew Stafford found his former college roommate WR Kris Durham for a 13-yard score. Stafford finished the day 25-of-40 passing with one touchdown and no interceptions, while Bush led the Lions rushing attack with 44 yards on 13 carries. The Lions tight end combination of TE Brandon Pettigrew and TE Tony Scheffler led the team in receiving, with both players recording 4 catches for 59 and 55 yards, respectively.

SUMMARY
The Lions defeated the Cleveland Browns in Week 6 of the 2013 NFL season by the score of 31-17. Detroit outscored Cleveland 24-0 in the second half to claim the comeback victory after trailing 17-7 at halftime. The Lions lone score of the first half was TE Joseph Fauria's first touchdown of the game, a one-yard back shoulder fade from QB Matthew Stafford that gave the Lions a 7-0 lead. The Browns would storm back and score 17 unanswered points highlighted by a pair of touchdown passes from QB Brandon Weeden. The second half was a much different story as the Lions defense came out with a chip on their shoulder following a halftime pep talk from LB Stephen Tulloch. The offense got the ball moving with a heavy dose of RB Reggie Bush, who recorded his second TD reception of the year to cut the lead to 17-14. The rest of the spotlight belonged to Fauria as the undrafted rookie hauled in two more touchdown passes from Stafford to clinch the victory and move the Lions to 4-2 on the season. Lions LB DeAndre Levy recorded two interceptions in the game to put him atop the NFC with four picks on the season. Levy's four interceptions is also tied for the lead among linebackers and is tied for the most in the NFL.

SUMMARY
Cincinnati kicker Mike Nugent blasted a 54-yard field goal as time expired to hand the Lions a narrow 24-27 loss in Week 7 (10/20). Detroit WR Calvin Johnson did everything in his power to lead his team to victory, but fell just short despite hauling in nine passes for 155 yards and two touchdowns. QB Matthew Stafford completed 28-of-51 passes for 357 yards and three touchdowns, but was unable to orchestrate a game-winning drive late in the fourth quarter. RB Reggie Bush was held in check by the powerful defensive line of the Bengals. Bush managed just 50 yards on 20 carries but did find some space in the passing game as he caught three passes for 44 yards. The Bengals opened the scoring with a QB Andy Dalton bomb down the sideline to WR A.J. Green for an 82-yard touchdown. Green ended the day with 155 yards and one touchdown. Dalton would go on to throw two more touchdowns, one to WR Marvin Jones and the other to TE Tyler Eifert. The highlight of the day for the Lions on offense came on a 50-yard pass from Stafford to Johnson. Johnson out-leaped three Bengals defenders and came down with the highlight-reel catch. In the end, it was Nugent's last second field goal that sealed the fate of the Lions in Week 7.

SUMMARY
Detroit drove 80 yards in the final 1:02 of the game against the Cowboys to pull off an improbable 31-30 victory over Dallas in Week 8 (10/27) at Ford Field. Lions QB Matthew Stafford connected on three passes on the final drive before diving across the goal line for the game-winning touchdown run with 12 ticks remaining on the clock. Despite the dramatic victory, the day belonged to Lions WR Calvin Johnson as he racked up a franchise-high 329 receiving yards on 14 catches, two of which came on Detroit's final drive. Johnson's final tally was the second most in NFL history for a single game performance. The Lions kicked off the scoring with the Stafford-to-Johnson connection for a two-yard score. The Cowboys answered with 13 unanswered points, including a touchdown grab from WR Dez Bryant. Trailing 20-10 in the fourth quarter the Lions cut the lead to three with a one-yard rushing touchdown from RB Joique Bell, but the Cowboys pushed the lead back to 10 on the next drive as Bryant found the end zone yet again. Detroit battled back with another one-yard rushing touchdown, this time from RB Reggie Bush. The Cowboys faced a third down and would be able to run out the clock if they picked up the first down but a holding penalty not only prevented that but also stopped the clock for Detroit. Stafford and the Lions took advantage of the mental mistake from the Cowboys and improved to 5-3 on the season with the stunning one point win.

SUMMARY
The Lions moved into first place in the NFC North with a 21-19 victory in Chicago in Week 10 of the 2013 NFL season. Detroit RB Reggie Bush ran for 105 yards on 14 carries to record his second 100-yard game this season. WR Calvin Johnson continued another stellar season with 83 yards to go along with his two touchdown receptions. QB Matthew Stafford found his former college roommate Kris Durham in the back of the end zone to tie the game at 7-7 in the first quarter. Stafford would then hook up with Johnson on a 4-yard touchdown pass, tying the dynamic duo for most touchdowns by a QB-WR tandem in franchise history. However the tie did not last long as Stafford found Johnson yet again for a 14-yard touchdown to give the Lions a 21-13 lead with 2:22 to go in the game. Ailing Bears QB Jay Cutler was replaced by backup Josh McCown for the final drive and McCown delivered with a 10-play 74-yard drive capped off by a Brandon Marshall touchdown. Needing a two-point conversion the Bears decided to go with a run with RB Matt Forte but Lions DT Nick Fairley blew up the play in the backfield to secure the Detroit victory.

SUMMARY
Battling the elements in a Week 11 road matchup, the Detroit Lions fell to the Pittsburgh Steelers 37-27 at Heinz Field. Detroit fell to 6-4 on the season while Pittsburgh improved to 4-6. Lions QB Matthew Staff ord passed Hall Of Fame QB Bobby Layne as the all-time passing yards leader in Lions history and WR Calvin Johnson surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the fi h time in seven seasons. The Steelers jumped out to a 14-0 lead a er WR Antonio Brown caught short passes and turned them into 34- and 47-yard touchdowns, respectively. However, the Lions would come roaring back in the second quarter as Staff ord found Johnson for a pair of scores and RB Joique Bell capped off a drive with a two-yard touchdown run. K David Akers chipped in a 19-yard fi eld goal right before the half, but unfortunately for Detroit, that would be its fi nal score of the game. The Lions had a chance at a fi eld goal in the fourth quarter, but a failed fake gave the Steelers the momentum to drive down the fi eld and take the lead and eventually seal the win, 37-27.

SUMMARY
The Lions were unable to overcome a flurry of mistakes in their Week 12 loss to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Detroit QB Matthew Stafford threw four interceptions while the Lions also allowed a blocked punt and lost one fumble. However, the stout Lions defense allowed just three points off of the turnovers. Detroit clamped down on the run once again and held the Bucs to just 22 rushing yards on 24 attempts. Tampa Bay found holes in the secondary as rookie QB Mike Glennon connected on 14-of-21 passes for 247 yards and two touchdowns to WR Tiquan Underwood. The Lions and Bucs battled back-and-forth, trading scores all game long. The back-breaker for the Lions came on an 85-yard touchdown pass from Glennon to Underwood which proved to be the difference in the 24-21 loss for Detroit.

SUMMARY
Detroit dominated Green Bay 40-10 on Thanksgiving Day to snap a nine-game losing streak on Thanksgiving. QB Matthew Stafford connected on 22-of-35 passes for 330 yards and three touchdowns while RB Reggie Bush paced the ground attack with 117 yards on 20 carries, including a one-yard touchdown. WR Calvin Johnson also hauled in six passes for 101 yards and a touchdown. The Lions found themselves trailing 10-3 following a fumble return for a touchdown by Packers LB Morgan Burnett. That would be Green Bay's last lead of the day as the Lions posted 37 unanswered points to route the Packers who were without QB Aaron Rodgers due to injury. The Lions defense was all over backup QB Matt Flynn as the spot-starter was sacked seven times, including a safety by Ndamukong Suh. The Lions defense once again proved to be one of the best against run as they held the Packers to just 24 yards on 15 carries. Detroit moved to 7-5 on the season and maintained a firm grasp on the NFC North.

SUMMARY
In a game highlighted by blizzard-like conditions, the Lions fell to 7-6 on the season with a 34-20 defeat to the Philadelphia Eagles in Week 14 of the 2013 NFL season. The Lions took an 8-0 lead into halftime thanks to a two-yard plunge from RB Joique Bell. However, the second half was a much different story as the Eagles were able to find their explosive running game. Philadelphia RB LeSean McCoy ran for a franchise record 217 yards, 148 of which came in the fourth quarter. McCoy dashed for two touchdowns with 40- and 57-yard runs, respectively. The Lions offense was stagnant in the snow, but Detroit was carried by PR/KR Jeremy Ross who took a punt and kickoff back to the house to keep Detroit in it. However, the defense failed to stop the rushing attack of the Eagles as a 38-yard touchdown scamper from Chris Polk late in the final quarter sealed the win for Philadelphia.

SUMMARY
The Lions fell to 7-7 on the season after Ravens K Justin Tucker connected on six field goals, including a 61-yard game-winner on Monday Night Football at Ford Field. The Lions defense held the Baltimore offense out of the end zone all game, but the six field goals were enough to claim the 18-16 victory. Detroit kicked off the game with an impressive opening drive, which ended in a 14-yard touchdown run from RB Reggie Bush. The Lions offense began to tamper off as turnovers again played a prominent part in the team's defeat. QB Matthew Stafford was intercepted three times in the second half, but managed to give the Lions a late lead after finding rookie TE Joseph Fauria in the back of the end zone to give Detroit a 16-15 edge with just over two minutes remaining. Ravens QB Joe Flacco misfired on first and second down, but found an open wide out on third down to set up Tucker's 61-yard game winner.

SUMMARY
In the Lions' final home game of the 2013 NFL season, Detroit fell to the New York Giants 20-23 in overtime. RB Joique Bell played his best game of the season as he led the Lions in both rushing (20 carries, 91 yards) and receiving (10 receptions, 63 yards) for career-high 154 total yards on the day. Rookie RB Theo Riddick also scored his first touchdown of the season on a two-yard score to give the Lions two rushing touchdowns in the game. Both teams traded field goals in the first and second quarter before New York QB Eli Manning found WR Jerrel Jernigan for a 20-yard score with just over two minutes remaining in the second quarter. Giants K Josh Brown added a 52-yard field goal at the end of the first half to give the Giants a 13-3 lead heading into halftime. The Lions responded in the third quarter as Bell dove in for a one-yard score, and DT Nick Fairley kept the Lions' momentum alive with the team's second safety of the year to bring the Lions within one, 13-12. Riddick's go-ahead, two-yard touchdown run gave Detroit its first lead of the game, but a 38-yard interception return from Giants S Will Hill evened the score at 20-20 to force overtime. In the extra period, Brown connected from 45 yards out to give him his third field goal of the game and seal the win 23-20.

SUMMARY
Detroit fell just short to the Vikings, 13-14, in the final game at Mall of America Field. Vikings WR Cordarrelle Patterson led the Vikings with two touchdowns on the day, one rushing and one receiving, as two fourth-quarter field goals from Lions K David Akers were not enough to propel the Lions in the regular season finale. Trailing 0-7 at halftime, Lions QB Matthew Stafford responded in the third quarter with an 85-yard drive that was capped off by a 19-yard touchdown pass to RB Reggie Bush to tie the score at 7-7. Akers would then give the Lions the go-ahead scores midway through the fourth quarter with 25- and 53-yard field goals, respectively, after the defense forced a fumble on Minnesota RB Matt Asiata. With 9:27 remaining, Vikings CB Marcus Sherels returned the ensuing punt 50 yards to the Detroit 8-yard line where QB Matt Cassel capitalized with an 8-yard touchdown pass to Patterson to give the Vikings a 14-13 lead late in the game. Minnesota would grab a key first down after the two-minute warning to seal the win as time expired.

PRIDE OF THE LIONS

On November 22, 2009, the Lions unveiled the team's Pride of the Lions, a permanent stadium display honoring greatest players in team history during a halftime celebration at Ford Field against the Cleveland Browns. The team introduced the 12 members of the Pride of the Lions charter class. The Pride of the Lions is a very visible feature on the old Hudson's warehouse of Ford Field (south suite levels) that includes the players' jersey numbers, name and years played with the Lions.

LIONS ALL-PROS

The Associated Press All-Pro Team (First Team) dates back to 1930. In 1951, the AP began designating the All-Pro Team by offense and defense. From 1930-50, positions selected included the following: End (E), Tackle (T), Guard (G), Center (C) and Back (B). This designation represented the offensive and defensive systems of the era as well as the commonality of two-way players. The first year the offensive backfield was separated by Quarterback, Fullback and Half (Running) Back was 1954. The first year the AP designated the defensive backfield by Safety (S) and Cornerback (B or CB in 1963) was 1955. Wide Receiver (WR), also known as Flanker (FL) from 1963-69, were first separated in 1963, having been previously combined as the End (E) position. Punter (P) and Placekicker (PK) were first honored in 1970 and Kick Returner (KR) in 1978.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions hosted the Bears for the inaugural Thanksgiving Day game on November 29, 1934. The game, played in front of a then-record 26,000 fans at the University of Detroit Stadium, was won by the Bears, 19-16, giving the Bears the Western Division championship. NBC Radio Network broadcasted the game coast-to-coast and a Thanksgiving tradition was born.
- On Thanksgiving Day (November 27) in 1997, the Lions downed the Bears 55-20 for their largest offensive output ever against Chicago. RB Barry Sanders rushed for 167 yards and three touchdowns in the win at the Silverdome. Earlier in the 1997 season, Sanders put up 161 yards on Chicago in a 32-7 victory over the Bears.
- WR Herman Moore set a franchise record with 14 catches for 183 yards in a 27-7 win December 4, 1995 at the Pontiac Silverdome. His record has since been tied by WR Calvin Johnson (10/27/13 vs. Dal).
- Detroit had its best stretch against the Bears when it won 11 of 12 games from September 22, 1968 to December 9, 1973.
- Five contests have gone to overtime—including both in 2002— with the Bears winning four of them.
- In the 2004 season opener, Detroit topped Chicago 20-17 to end its 24-game road losing streak. A key play in the game was S Bracy Walker's return of a blocked FG an NFL-record 92 yards.
- With the Lions trailing 13-3 going into the fourth quarter vs. Chicago at Ford Field September 30, 2007, the Lions reeled off an NFL record 34 points in the quarter to claim a 37-27 win. It marked just the fifth time in NFL history a team scored 30 or more points in a quarter. Detroit scored five touchdowns, including two passing, one rushing, one interception and one kickoff return. The teams also combined for 48 points, which is a record for combined fourth quarter points.
- On October 28, 2007, the Lions defeated the Bears 16-7 at Soldier Field. K Jason Hanson, connected on a 52-yarder, which was his career longest against the Bears on the road, and marked the longest in franchise history by a Lions kicker on the road vs. Chicago. It also marked the first 50-yard field goal on the road vs. the Bears by a Lions kicker in the series that dates back to 1930. Almost one year to the exact date (November 2, 2008), Hanson repeated this feat when he hit another 52-yarder vs. the Bears.
- In front of a Ford Field record crowd (67,861), Detroit defeated the Bears 24-13 on ESPN's Monday Night Football October 10, 2011. It was the Lions first appearance on MNF since 2001. The game was highlighted by a 73-yard touchdown bomb from QB Matthew Stafford to WR Calvin Johnson and the second-longest rush in team history by RB Jahvid Best (88-yards). The crowd was so electric that their noise played a large part in Chicago committing nine false start penalties throughout the game.
- With two receiving touchdowns in the Lions' 21-19 win at Chicago on November 10, 2013, WR Calvin Johnson recorded his 62nd and 63rd career touchdowns and set a new Lions career record for receiving touchdowns. He broke the record of 62 previously set by WR Herman Moore. Detroit's road victory marked the first win at Soldier Field since a 16-7 win on October 28, 2007.

SERIES NOTES

- The Packers and Lions have met on Thanksgiving Day 21 times, with the Lions holding an 12-8-1 advantage in those games. The Lions have played the Packers more times on Thanksgiving than any other team in the league.
- The Lions and Packers met 13 consecutive years on Thanksgiving Day from 1951-1963 with the Lions winning nine of those contests. 2003 was the Packers' first visit to Ford Field on Thanksgiving.
- The 11 consecutive wins that the Lions posted against Green Bay from December 11, 1949 to November 25, 1954 are the most by the Lions against any franchise. The 11-game streak came after the Lions were 8-29-1 in the first 38 games of the series.
- Frank Sinkwich set a Lions' record by intercepting seven passes in a 27-6 loss to the Packers on October 24, 1943.
- These two franchises played in 127 regular season games in 60 years before meeting in the playoffs for the first time following the 1993 season and then again following the 1994 season.
- The Packers came to Ford Field for its regular season opener on September 22, 2002 and defeated the Lions 37-31.
- K Jason Hanson became the 16th player in NFL history to reach the 300-point mark when he kicked a 36-yard field goal against Green Bay December 12, 2004.
- The 17-3 Lions win in the 2005 season opener was the lowest point total in any game (including postseason) that then-Packers QB Brett Favre had ever started.
- QB Matthew Stafford threw for a team record 520 yards, tied a then-team record with 36 completions and tied a team record with 5 touchdown passes in the 45-41 loss at Green Bay January 1, 2012. WR Calvin Johnson set a then-career high with 244 receiving yards and tied a then-career high with 11 receptions. His 244 yards were the third-highest single-game tally in Lions history at the time. Johnson's one receiving touchdown gave him 16 on the year, a new single-season club record.
- The Lions claimed a 40-10 win against the Packers in the team's 74th Thanksgiving Day game on November 28, 2013. The team's 30-point victory margin against the Packers is the largest since a 34-0 win (34-point margin) vs. Green Bay October 28, 1973. The 126 total offensive yards allowed by the Lions is the lowest yielded by the team since allowing just 95 yards at Cincinnati November 22, 1992.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions trail 34-69-2 in the series with the Vikings in a NFC North Division rivalry that dates back to a 37-10 Detroit victory November 19, 1961 at Minnesota.
- The Lions won the first five outings and nine of the first 14 games in the series; however, Minnesota then won 13 straight contests and 19 of the next 21.
- On two occasions, the Lions have accumulated 45 points in a single game against the Vikings. Detroit defeated Minnesota 45-14 December 9, 1978 and 45-7 December 12, 1981, with both games taking place at the Silverdome.
- RB Barry Sanders scored four touchdowns in the Lions' 34-14 win at Minnesota November 24, 1991. His four touchdowns established a new Lions' record for rushing touchdowns in a single game. His four touchdowns and 24-point performance also tied Lions' single-game marks.
- QB Scott Mitchell set a then-franchise single-game record for passing yards, breaking Bobby Layne's previous mark of 375, when he accumulated 410 yards vs. Minnesota in a memorable Thanksgiving Day clash November 23, 1995. Mitchell completed 30-of-45 passes and tossed four touchdowns. The wide receiver trio of Herman Moore, Brett Perriman and Johnnie Morton each reached the 100-yard receiving mark in the contest. The Lions won the game 44-38.
- In their final road game and the second-to-last game of the 1997 season, the Lions claimed a 14-13 victory over the Vikings at the Metrodome when QB Scott Mitchell tossed a 1-yard pass to WR Herman Moore in the endzone to claim the come-from-behind victory with 0:02 remaining to play. Mitchell engineered the game-winning 72-yard drive that began with 1:56 remaining to play and with only one timeout.
- With his opening kickoff return for a touchdown at Minnesota November 21, 2004, KR Eddie Drummond became the first player in NFL history to score three consecutive touchdowns for his team via punt and kickoff returns. He became only the second player in NFL history to return two kickoffs and two punts for touchdowns in a single season, the other being Dante Hall (Kansas City) in 2003.
- The Lions overcame a 20-0 halftime deficit and roared back to beat the Vikings, 26-23, in overtime on September 25, 2011. K Jason Hanson kicked a game-winning 32-yard field goal in the extra session for the victory.
- After trailing 20-0 at halftime at Minnesota September 25, 2011, the Lions mounted a comeback in the second half and claimed a 26-23 win in overtime. It was the Lions' first win at Minnesota since 1997. WR Calvin Johnson caught 2 touchdown passes for the third-straight game, and had a critical 40-yard over-the-shoulder grab in overtime to set up the team's game-winning field goal.
- With a 34-28 win vs. Minnesota December 11, 2011, the Lions captured its first season sweep of the Vikings since 1997 and kept their playoff hopes alive. Minnesota came back in the second half and had possession at the Lions 1-yard line with :09 left to play. LB DeAndre Levy raced in and forced a fumble on QB Joe Webb which caused a furious scramble for the ball. Eventually, DE Cliff Avril would recover it at the Vikings 43-yard line to seal the victory.
- In the 2013 season opener, RB Reggie Bush made his Lions debut in style as he helped the Lions to a 34-24 win over Minnesota and collected 90 yards rushing and 101 yards receiving. He became just the third player in Lions history with 90+ rushing yards and 100+ receiving yards (Billy Sims: 119 rush, 103 rec at LaRm 9/19/82; Barry Sanders: 90 rush, 135 rec at KC 10/14/90).

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's first regular season game, as well as its last, at the Pontiac Silverdome was played against Dallas. The Cowboys won the Monday Night contest 36-10 October 6, 1975 during the Silverdome's inaugural regular season game and the Lions won the finale 15-10 on January 6, 2002.
- The Lions have won nine of the last 16 regular season meetings with Dallas, in addition to Detroit's 38-6 win in the 1991 Divisional Playoff game.
- The Lions and Cowboys have squared off twice in postseason play, with each team claiming victory on its own turf. The first postseason contest occurred December 26, 1970 with Dallas posting a 5-0 shutout against Detroit.
- The Lions captured the victory in the second playoff contest when they defeated the Cowboys, 38-6, at the Silverdome January 5, 1992.
- Lions RB Barry Sanders set a Lions record for carries in a game (40) in a Monday Night contest in Dallas on September 19, 1994. The Lions won the game 20-17 in overtime.
- The Lions overcame a 24-point deficit in the third quarter and beat the Cowboys, 34-30, on October 2, 2011. The Lions returned two interceptions for touchdowns in the second half to spark the comeback.
- The Lions tied a NFL-record for a road team with a 24-point comeback win at Dallas October 2, 2011. With 20+-point comebacks in consecutive weeks, Detroit became the first team in NFL history to accomplish that feat.
- In a dramatic 31-30 come-from--behind victory for the Lions on October 27, 2013, WR Calvin Johnson set a franchise record with 329 receiving yards and tied a franchise record with 14 receptions. NFL Championship Game

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions-Giants series is one of four series (Ari, Chi and GB) in franchise history dating back to 1930. The Lions hold a 20-19-1 lead in the series starting with a 19-6 New York victory at Detroit November 5, 1930, when the team was located in Portsmouth.
- Detroit dominated the series initially, claiming eight of the first 12 contests.
- The Giants were the opposition in the Lions' first-ever game in Detroit. The Lions won the game 9-0 on September 23, 1934 at University of Detroit Stadium.
- The Lions and the Giants played the NFL's last scoreless 0-0 tie November 7, 1943 at Briggs Stadium.
- Detroit claimed its first NFL championship with a 26-7 win over the defending champion Giants on December 15, 1935. It is the only postseason meeting between the franchises.
- In the 2000 matchup, the Lions jumped out to a 21-0 halftime lead en route to a 31-21 win at Giants Stadium. The first half was highlighted by two touchdown passes from QB Charlie Batch and a blocked punt by WR Larry Foster, which was the first by the Lions since S Bennie Blades blocked a punt December 13, 1992 vs. Cleveland.

Note: The Playoff Bowl was a postseason game for third place in the NFL from 1961-1970.
The Philadelphia Eagles and Pittsburgh Steelers merged for the 1943 season as a wartime emergency measure.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit claimed victories in the first four games of the series, with each being a shutout. The Lions also won seven of the first nine meetings.
- The Lions' defense had three takeaways that helped Detroit's offense score three touchdowns and grab a commanding 24-0 halftime lead over the Eagles, before defeating Philadelphia 38-10 in the 1961 Playoff Bowl.
- The Lions' last tie in a regular season game was against the Eagles (23-23) November 4, 1984, the only tie in Silverdome history.
- In the Lions' first visit to Lincoln Financial Field (Sept. 23, 2007), QB Jon Kitna set a then-franchise record with 446 passing yards. Kitna connected with WR Roy Williams for a 91-yard TD, career highs for both players. With 204 receiving yards, Williams' career high was the then third-highest tally by a receiver in Lions history.
- QB Matthew Stafford then led his eighth-career game-winning drive as the Lions defeated the Eagles, 26-23 in an overtime win that was capped off by K Jason Hanson's 45-yard game-winning field goal.
- With 49 receiving yards at Philadelphia on December 8, 2013, WR Calvin Johnson (9,184) broke the Lions franchise record for career receiving yards, surpassing WR Herman Moore (9,174).
- WR Jeremy Ross became the second player in Lions history to register a punt return touchdown (58 yards) and kickoff return touchdown (98 yards) in the same game at Philadelphia December 8, 2013. Ross joins RB Eddie Payton (vs. Minnesota December 17, 1977) as the only Lions players to accomplish this feat.

- Lions K Jason Hanson played in his 200th career game as a Lion when the Redskins visited Ford Field in 2004. Hanson's 200th game tied him for first on the Lions' all-time games played list with Wayne Walker (1958-72).
- Detroit's 33-17 win over the Redskins on December 5, 1999 at the Silverdome snapped a 16-game losing streak against Washington dating back to a 14-10 Lions' win at Tiger Stadium on October 3, 1965.
- On September 27, 2009, Lions rookie QB Matthew Stafford threw for 241 yards and one TD and was 21-of-36 (58.3 pct.) with no interceptions for his first win as an NFL starting quarterback.
- QB Matthew Stafford connected with WR Calvin Johnson for 3 TDs and rookie DT Ndamukong Suh registered 2 sacks and a fumble return for a touchdown in the team's 37-25 win over Washington on October 31, 2010 at Ford Field.
- The Lions defeated the Redskins in Washington on September 22, 2013, breaking a streak of 21-consecutive road losses. The last time the Lions had previously defeated the Redskins on the road was October 13, 1935, a 17-7 victory at Boston.

- The Lions have dominated the series against the Falcons, amassing a 23-12 record. The initial meeting took place at Tiger Stadium on September 25, 1966, Atlanta's inaugural season, with the Lions running away with a 28-10 win. The Lions are 14-5 at home (5-0 in Tiger Stadium; 8-3 in the Silverdome, 1-2 at Ford Field). Detroit has won 10 of the last 16 games in the series.
- The Lions winning-percentage against the Falcons (.657) is their highest among all NFC opponents and their second highest among all NFL opponents (Cleveland, .789).
- The Lions and Falcons met in the regular season opener or closer seven times between 1985-94. The two teams opened or closed the season every year from 1985-89, and met in the regular season opener again in 1997.

- QB Matthew Stafford completed 37 passes against Atlanta December 22, 2012, which is the highest single-game tally in Lions history. The previous record of 36 completions was shared by QB Charlie Batch (at Ari, 11/8/01) and Stafford (at GB, 1/1/12).
- With 11 receptions for 225 yards in the teams' most recent meeting on December 22, 2012, WR Calvin Johnson set a new NFL single-season record for receiving yards (1,892) by breaking Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice's 17-year old mark of 1,848 in 1995.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Panthers faced off in their inaugural contest October 24, 1999. Detroit visited Carolina's Ericsson Stadium (renamed Bank of America Stadium) and handed the Panthers a 24-9 loss. The Panthers made five trips inside the Lions' five-yard line, and the Detroit defense forced two turnovers and yielded only three field goals.
- The contest was also the first of two straight games in 1999 where Detroit's defense did not yield a touchdown. That accomplishment marked the first time since 1983 that the Lions have kept opponents out of the end zone in back-to-back games (45-3 win vs. Pittsburgh November 24, 1983 and 13-2 win vs. Minnesota December 5, 1983).
- The Panthers evened the series record at 1-1 with a 31-7 home victory on September 15, 2002.
- Despite having both a fumble return and a punt return go for touchdowns, the Lions fell short at the eventual NFC Champion Panthers, 21-14, on December 14, 2003.
- LB Boss Bailey (34 yards) and S Kenoy Kennedy (64 yards) each returned interceptions back for touchdowns in the Lions last-minute 21-20 loss against Carolina at Ford Field on October 16, 2005. The last time the Lions had two interceptions for touchdowns in a game was at Seattle October 24, 1976 when Levi Johnson and Lem Barney both returned interceptions for touchdowns.
- After a sluggish start against Carolina on November 20, 2011, the Lions overcame a 17-point deficit to defeat the Panthers 49-35 behind QB Matthew Stafford's 5 touchdown passes, all to five different receivers. Just recently re-acquired, RB Kevin Smith rushed for a career-high 140 yards (201 total yards), along with 2 rushing and 1 receiving touchdowns.

SERIES NOTES

- In the second game ever played at Ford Field, the Lions claimed a 26-21 win over New Orleans for the first win at the team's new downtown Detroit home.
- The first game played between the Lions and Saints was a 20-20 tie on November 24, 1968 in Detroit.
- The home team has generally had the upper hand in the series with Detroit compiling a 6-3-1 mark at home (1-1 at Ford Field) while New Orleans has managed a 6-3 record at home (5-2 in the Superdome).
- In one of the NFL's all-time amazing finishes, New Orleans K Tom Dempsey booted a 63-yard field goal as time expired to give the Saints a 19-17 victory in Tulane Stadium on November 8, 1970. Dempsey's mighty boot stood alone as the longest field goal in NFL history until Denver's Jason Elam tied the record on October 25, 1998 vs. Jacksonville.
- The Lions' Richard Johnson tallied 248 yards receiving (second-in team history) on eight receptions and earned NFC Player of the Week honors in Detroit's 21-14 win over the Saints on December 3, 1989.
- The Lions kicked off the 2000 season by defeating the Saints 14-10 at the Superdome. The Lions' only touchdown of the game was courtesy of Desmond Howard's franchise-record 95-yard punt return in the fourth quarter.
- K Jason Hanson nailed a 39-yard field goal as time expired in regulation that lifted the Lions to a 13-12 win over New Orleans in San Antonio December 14, 2005. The final drive was set up by a Roy Williams 40-yard grab on 4th-and-17. Williams had four catches for 111 yards against the Saints, all in the fourth quarter.
- In the Lions' first playoff game since 1999, QB Matthew Stafford set a single-game postseason franchise record with 380 yards passing, while WR Calvin Johnson posted a franchise-bests in both receptions (12) and receiving yards (211) and tied a franchise record in receiving touchdowns (2) at New Orleans on January 7, 2012.

Note: From 1930-33, the Lions were the Portsmouth (POR) Spartans. The Arizona Cardinals were located in Chicago from 1920-59 and in St. Louis from 1960-87 before moving to Phoenix, Ariz., in 1988. The team became the Arizona Cardinals in 1994.

The Chicago Cardinals and Pittsburgh Steelers merged for the 1944 season as a wartime emergency measure.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's series with the Cardinals is the oldest in the history of the Lions' franchise. The first game was played October 5, 1930 between the Portsmouth Spartans and the Chicago Cardinals, and it ended in a scoreless tie. That game is one of two scoreless ties (other was a 0-0 tie played September 15, 1940) played between the Lions and the Cardinals in their series. The Lions own a 31-24-5 advantage over the Cardinals.
- September 30, 1934 marked the first occasion that the Detroit Lions and the Chicago Cardinals matched up, and the Lions were victorious 6-0.
- In all, the Portsmouth Spartans were 2-2-2 vs. the Chicago Cardinals. Detroit registered a 19-9-3 mark against the Chicago Cardinals, a 5-4 record over the St. Louis Cardinals and have a 5-11

mark since the Cardinals moved to Phoenix.

- The Lions-Cardinals series is one of four series (Chicago, Green Bay and New York Giants) in franchise history that dates back to 1930, Portsmouth's inaugural season in the NFL.
- The teams met twice in 1993 with Detroit winning both contests, 26-20 at the Silverdome September 26 and 21-14 in Phoenix on December 12.
- Behind the record-setting performance by QB Charlie Batch at Arizona November 18, 2001 (a then franchise record 436 yards passing), the Lions' offense set several team records and collected some of the franchise's highest totals in other team offensive categories. The Lions' 62 pass attempts set the team's single-game record by surpassing the previous high of 57 attempts accomplished vs. Chicago (10/9/88). The team's 36 completions are better than the 33 completions tossed at Cleveland (9/28/86) and vs. Green Bay (10/25/87). The Lions' established a new record for net passing yards by airing out 429 yards, which is better than the previous high of 395 vs. Minnesota (11/23/95). And the 22 first downs gained on pass plays is a new team record, passing the old mark of 20 set vs. Minnesota (11/23/95).
- Detroit snapped a five-game losing streak in the series in the 2003 season opener with a 42-24 win over the Cardinals at Ford Field. The win was the first for former Lions Head Coach Steve Mariucci. QB Joey Harrington threw for a career-high four touchdown passes in the game.
- In Detroit's 26-12 win over Arizona December 5, 2004, RB Kevin Jones ran for a career-high 196 yards on 26 carries, 105 of which came in the first half. It is the second-highest rushing total by a Lions rookie in team history, just one yard shy of Mel Farr's record of 197 yards on 24 carries at Minnesota (11/12/67).
- In the same 2004 contest, K Jason Hanson became the 20th player in NFL history to reach the 1,300-point plateau.
- In a 2009 meeting at Ford Field (12/20) S Louis Delmas returned an interception 101 yards for a touchdown which was the longest by a NFL rookie since 1926 (Columbus RB Pete Barnum, 103t at Canton 9/26/26). It also ranks as the longest by a Lions rookie in team history and is tied for the second-longest in franchise history.
- WR Calvin Johnson tied an NFL record for most-consecutive games with 100+ receiving yards with 7 in the teams' meeting at University of Phoenix Stadium (12/16/12). Johnson finished the game with 10 receptions for 121 yards.

SERIES NOTES

- The St. Louis Rams lead the Lions in the all-time series 42-39-1. In their series, the Rams have been located in three different cities, Cleveland (1937-45), Los Angeles (1946-94) and St. Louis (since 1995).

- Overall, Detroit was 8-7 vs. the Cleveland Rams, 27-32-1 vs. the Los Angeles Rams and are 4-3 vs. the St. Louis Rams.
- The inaugural game between the two teams was played September 10, 1937 when the Lions claimed a 28-0 shutout at Cleveland.
- After the Rams moved to Los Angeles, the clubs faced off twice each season from 1946-66. The Rams owned a slight edge, 21-20-1, in those games played.
- The Lions played the Rams on November 7, 1999 in the first meeting between the teams since the Rams moved from Los Angeles to St. Louis. Detroit won the affair 31-27 at the Silverdome in the final minute of the game when QB Gus Frerotte hit WR Johnnie Morton on a 12-yard touchdown pass with 28 seconds remaining to play for the game-winning score. On the final drive, Frerotte completed a 57-yard pass to WR Germane Crowell on a fourth-and-26 play to keep the drive alive.
- In the 2003 season finale, the Lions defeated the St. Louis Rams at Ford Field, 30-20, denying the Rams' bid for homefield advantage throughout the playoffs.
- In the Lions 44-6 win over St. Louis, October 10, 2010, KR Stefan Logan tied a team-record with a 105-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. QB Shaun Hill connected on 3 touchdown passes, CB Alphonso Smith returned a 42-yard interception for a touchdown and rookie DT Ndamukong Suh registered his first career interception on a tipped pass (20-yard return).
- In the teams' most recent meeting, the Lions orchestrated a 27-23 come-from-behind win over the Rams on September 9, 2012 in the team's season home opener. QB Matthew Stafford led the team on a nine-play, 80-yard drive with 1:55 left to play before finding RB Kevin Smith for a five-yard touchdown pass for the go-ahead score. The victory marked Stafford's seventh-career fourth-quarter game-winning drive when trailing or tied.

SERIES NOTES

- Aside from the NFL's recent expansion additions (Baltimore, Carolina, Houston and Jacksonville), the nine meetings between the Lions and Bills is the fewest number of games the Lions have played against any opponent.
- Two of the nine games have been played on Thanksgiving Day, with the Lions winning both outings. Detroit won the first Turkey Day game between the two clubs 27-14 November 25, 1976 and the second Thanksgiving Day affair 35-21 on November 24, 1994.
- In the 1976 meeting, Bills RB O.J. Simpson put on one of the greatest individual performances in pro football history as he rushed for a then-NFL record 273 yards. Simpson's historic Thanksgiving Day performance wasn't enough as the Lions prevailed 27-14.
- Bills owner Ralph C. Wilson grew up in Detroit and at one time was a Lions' shareholder. He attended the University of Michigan law school, is the Chairman of Ralph C. Wilson Industries and resides in Grosse Pointe Shores, Mich.
- The Lions and Bills have met each other in the preseason each year since 2002, including the 2013 preseason on August 29 with the Lions winning 35-13. Overall, the teams have played 33 times in the preseason, with Detroit holding a 21-11-1 edge in the preseason series.

SERIES NOTES

- The first two head coaches in Dolphins' history both had ties to Detroit. George Wilson coached the Dolphins from 1966-69. He was an assistant with the Lions from 1949-56 and was the Lions' head coach from 1957-64. Wilson was at the helm when the Lions won their last championship in 1957. Don Shula was the Dolphins' head coach from 1970-95, and was an assistant under Wilson with the Lions from 1960-62.
- The first three of Miami's triumphs over the Lions clinched AFC Eastern Division titles for the Dolphins (in 1973, 1979 and 1994).
- Detroit's win over Miami in 1985 was a historic one for the Lions. The win marked the first time in NFL history that a club had beaten the Super Bowl participants from the previous year in back-to-back weeks (the Lions had edged the Super Bowl XIX champion San Francisco 49ers 23-21 only seven days earlier).
- In their last trip to Miami in 2010, Detroit overcame a 27-17 fourth quarter deficit for a 34-27 victory, the Lions' first against the Dolphins in Miami. LB DeAndre Levy intercepted a pass and returned it 30 yards for a touchdown with 2:11 remaining to give Detroit the win.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit opened their series vs. the Patriots with a 34-7 victory on September 26, 1971 in Schaefer Stadium (renamed Foxboro Stadium). RB Steve Owens scored two touchdowns for the Lions, including a 74-yard touchdown catch from QB Greg Landry. The Lions also scored a defensive touchdown as LB Mike Lucci returned an interception 25 yards for a score.
- The fastest touchdown in Lions' history was scored against the Patriots. S Willie Clay (who later joined the Patriots as a free agent) recovered a New England fumble on the opening kickoff and returned it 15 yards for a touchdown only 11 seconds into the game on September 12, 1993.
- In the 1993 matchup, Detroit edged New England 19-16 in overtime. The win gave the Lions their first 2-0 start since 1985, and was clinched on Jason Hanson's fourth field goal of the game, a 38-yarder.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions completed their first undefeated home season since 1962 with a 34-20 win over the Jets on December 8, 1991.
- Detroit claimed a memorable 13-10 decision over the Jets at the Silverdome on December 21, 1997 in a game in which the winner qualified for the playoffs and the loser was eliminated. RB Barry Sanders' 184 rushing yards in the contest made him only the third player in NFL history to eclipse the 2,000-yard mark in a season. The noise was so boisterous at the sold-out Silverdome near the end of the game that players reported the turf actually vibrating beneath their feet. Unfortunately, Lions LB Reggie Brown suffered a career-ending neck injury in the fourth quarter of the game.
- The Lions defeated the Jets 10-7 at the Meadowlands on December 17, 2000 in the Lions' final road game of the season. Detroit's lone touchdown was a fumble recovery in the endzone by G Jeff Hartings.

SERIES NOTES

- The inaugural game between Detroit and Baltimore occurred December 27, 1998 at Ravens Stadium at Camden Yards (renamed M&T Bank Stadium) in Baltimore, with the Lions losing to the Ravens 19-10 in the '98 season finale.
- Detroit's first game with Baltimore ended up being RB Barry Sanders' final game in his 10-year career. He rushed 19 times for 41 yards, finishing nine yards (1,491) shy of collecting his fifth-straight 1,500-yard rushing season.
- In the Lions 35-17 win over Baltimore October 9, 2005, Detroit's rushing attack was stellar as the offense registered four rushing touchdowns, the most ever yielded by the Ravens defense. Among the rushing touchdowns were two scores by RB Kevin Jones and a 77-yard dash by RB Shawn Bryson.
- On ESPN's Monday Night Football vs. Baltimore on December 16, 2013, WR Calvin Johnson caught six passes for 98 yards and became the first player in NFL history to register 5,000 receiving yards over a three-year span (2011-13).

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Bengals met every year in the preseason from 1970-2001. The two teams have played a total of 35 preseason games, with the Bengals holding a slight edge in the series, 18-17.
- In the initial meeting of the series, the Lions jumped out to 31-0 halftime lead and never looked back as they trounced the Bengals 38-3 on September 27, 1970. The Detroit defense limited Cincinnati to six first downs and 140 yards on offense. RB Mel Farr led the Lions with 70 rushing yards on 13 carries.
- An eight-yard touchdown toss from QB Greg Landry to TE Charlie Sanders (now Lions' Assistant Director of Pro Personnel) with 29 seconds remaining in the game gave the Lions a 23-19 victory at Cincinnati in the 1974 matchup.
- In the Lions' November 22, 1992 game at Cincinnati, RB Barry Sanders passed RB Billy Sims to become Detroit's all-time leading rusher. He rushed 29 times for 151 yards and scored a touchdown as the Lions won 19-13.
- WR Calvin Johnson caught nine passes for 155 yards and two touchdowns in the 2013 matchup. His 155-yard outing was his 35th career 100-yard game, which set a new Lions career record for most 100-yard receiving games. Johnson broke the franchise record previously held by WR Herman Moore (34, 1991-2001) as the Lions fell 27-24 on a last-second field goal by Bengals K Mike Nugent.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions hold a 15-4 (.789) series lead over the Browns, dating back to the clubs' initial meeting in 1952. Detroit owns an 9-1 record in games played in Detroit.
- The Lions have defeated the Browns three of the four times that the two teams have met in the NFL championship game.
- The Lions' 59-14 win over the Browns in the 1957 NFL Championship Game represents the club's largest margin of victory (45) in a postseason game.
- The Lions' defense picked off four passes in Detroit's 17-16 victory over Cleveland in the inaugural Playoff Bowl on January 7, 1961.
- K Jason Hanson booted the longest field goal in franchise history against the Browns on October 8, 1995. Hanson drilled a 56-yard effort on the last play of the first half.
- QB Matthew Stafford led the Lions to a thrilling, come-from-behind 38-37 win over Cleveland (11/22/09) with one of the most remarkable performances by a rookie quarterback in NFL history. Stafford brought the team back from deficits three different times (21, 3 and 6 points) to either tie or take the lead. The win was Stafford's first career come-from-behind fourth-quarter win.
- After trailing 17-7 at halftime at Cleveland in the 2013 matchup (10/13), QB Matthew Stafford engineered five drives that resulted in three touchdowns and one field goal. In the fourth quarter, Stafford was 9-of-12 for 106 yards, threw for two touchdowns, tallied a 141.0 passer rating, and notched his 11th career game-winning drive. Rookie TE Joseph Fauria caught three touchdowns, setting a franchise single-game record for touchdown receptions by a tight end. His three touchdown grabs marked the first time a Lions tight end registered two or more in a game since TE David Sloan recorded two vs. Cincinnati October 28, 2001.

Note: The Playoff Bowl was a postseason game for third place in the NFL from 1961-1970.

The Pittsburgh Steelers merged with the Philadelphia Eagles for the 1943 season and the Chicago Cardinals for the 1944 season as a wartime emergency measure.

SERIES NOTES

- In the first meeting, the Lions beat the Steelers 40-7 behind a then-NFL record 426 yards rushing. Ernie Caddel scored three touchdowns in one of the more memorable games of the Lions' first season in Detroit.
- The Lions won the first four games of the series and were 12-4-1 through the first 17 contests.
- In 1952, Bob Hoernschmeyer ran for 107 yards and the Lions rolled up 321 yards rushing. Detroit's defense held the Steelers to minus-3 yards rushing in a 31-6 win at Pittsburgh.
- Detroit's defense had six sacks, two interceptions and blocked a field goal in the Lions' 17-10 in the 1962 Playoff Bowl. It was the Lions' third consecutive playoff bowl appearance, and also marked the last NFL game played by former Lions great Bobby Layne, who saw action at quarterback for the Steelers.
- Detroit's 45-3 win over the Steelers November 24, 1983 stands as the Lions' largest winning margin in the history of the team's Thanksgiving Day series (second-largest in team history).
- The Lions defeated Pittsburgh 19-16 in the second Thanksgiving Day (11/26/98) matchup between the two teams. Jason Hanson made his fourth field goal of the game (42-yarder) 2:52 into the extra period. The game marked the first Thanksgiving OT contest since 1980, and also was highlighted by a gutsy performance by Pittsburgh native, Charlie Batch, who completed 16-of-23 passes for 236 yards and a TD despite leaving the game for a time with a strained neck. The game will be remembered by a strange coin toss to begin the overtime period.
- With 362 yards at Pittsburgh on November 17, 2013, QB Matthew Stafford set a new franchise record for career passing yards with 16,005, breaking the previous record of 15,710 set by Hall of Fame QB Bobby Layne, which stood for 55 seasons (1958). He became the first Lions player to reach 16,000 yards.

SERIES NOTES

- In the teams' first matchup at Ford Field on September 19, 2004, WR Eddie Drummond returned a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown, his longest career return and his first career kickoff return touchdown. Drummond's kickoff return was the eighth-longest in team history and the longest since CB Terry Fair returned a kickoff 105 yards vs. Tampa Bay on September 28, 1998.
- In the Lions first trip to Houston's Reliant Stadium on November 19, 2008, WR Calvin Johnson caught two passes for 154 yards, including a career-long of 96 yards. With 154 yards on two receptions against the Texans, Johnson's receiving yards were the third-most for a player with two-or-fewer receptions in a single game in NFL history.
- In that same game, K Jason Hanson hit two field goals of 54-yards at Houston which were his 36th and 37th career field goals of 50+-yards. It was the third time in Hanson's career he hit two-or-more field goals of 50+-yards in a game.
- In the Lions' 73rd-annual Thanksgiving Day Classic on November 22, 2012, Detroit fell to the Texans 31-34 in a gripping overtime battle. QB Matthew Stafford threw for a season-high 441 yards and two touchdowns, while WRs Ryan Broyles and Calvin Johnson both racked up over 100 yards receiving with performances of 126 and 140 yards, respectively.

SERIES NOTES

- The clubs have met just seven times since the Colts moved to Indianapolis in 1984.
- On October 20, 1957, Bobby Layne threw a 29-yard TD pass to Howard "Hopalong" Cassady with 46 seconds remaining in the game as Detroit overcame a 27-10 fourth quarter deficit to defeat the Colts 31-27 in one of the greatest comebacks in team history.
- In the 1997 meeting, a 32-10 Lions win at the Silverdome, K Jason Hanson became the franchise's first kicker to convert two 50-yard field goals (52, 55) in a game. RB Barry Sanders rushed for 216 yards, including an 80-yarder for a touchdown. It was Sanders' fourth 200-yard outing of his career.
- In Detroit's first visit to Indianapolis' Lucal Oil Stadium on December 14, 2008, K Jason Hanson connected on a 51-yard field goal. His 51-yarder set a new NFL record for 50-yard field goals in a career (41) and it tied Morten Andersen's NFL record for 50-yard field goals in a season (8). Hanson was the first player in NFL history to go 8-for-8 on 50-yard field goals in a single season.
- WR Calvin Johnson caught 13 passes for 171 yards and one touchdown in the 2012 meeting, tying an NFL record with five-straight games of 125+ receiving yards (Lions WR Pat Studstill in 1966).

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit's 44-0 win over the Jaguars December 17, 1995 represents the largest victory margin in Lions' history and was the largest in the NFL in 1995. The game also marked the inaugural contest in the series between the Lions and the Jaguars.
- Lions KR Eddie Drummond had one of the finest performances by a returner in NFL history that ultimately forced the Lions' game at Jacksonville into overtime November 14, 2004. Drummond became the first player in NFL history to return two punts for touchdowns in the fourth quarter and the 11th (14th time) to return two punts for a touchdowns in a single game.
- Drummond's six punt returns against the Jaguars (11/14/04) for 199 yards (33.2 avg) is the third-best single-game total in NFL history and set a new Lions' franchise record for punt return yards in a game.
- Drummond's two punt returns for touchdowns (55 and 83 yards) at Jacksonville (11/14/04) marked the third time in Lions' history that a player recorded two punt return touchdowns in a game. CBJack Christiansen accomplished the feat twice in 1951 (2 vs. LA 10/14/51 and 2 vs. GB 11/22/51).
- In the Lions' 31-14 win in the 2012 contest, RB Mikel Leshoure rushed his way into Lions history in as he carried the ball 16 times for 70 yards and three touchdowns. He became the first player in Lions history to rush for three touchdowns in the first half of a game. Leshoure also became the 10th player in Lions history with three rushing touchdowns in a game and it is the 16th time it has occurred in team history.

SERIES NOTES

- The Lions and Titans have hooked up 11 times in the regular season with Tennessee holding a 8-3 lead. The Lions were 2-3 in Houston and 1-2 in the Pontiac Silverdome.
- The Titans have won seven of the last nine contests.
- The teams first met October 17, 1971 in Houston, with the Lions coming away with a 31-7 win.
- The Titans, then the Oilers, put a damper on Detroit's 1992 Thanksgiving Day festivities with a come-from-behind 24-21 win over the Lions in the Silverdome on November 26. Titans RB Lorenzo White's 8-yard touchdown scamper with 1:17 remaining sealed the Titans' victory and ended Detroit's three-game Thanksgiving Day win streak.
- On December 10, 1995, QB Scott Mitchell set the then-franchise record for touchdown passes in a season. QB Bobby Layne had previously owned the record (26 in 1951). Mitchell completed the '95 season with 32 touchdown passes. Mitchell's record has since been broken by QB Matthew Stafford, who tossed 41 touchdown passes in 2011.
- In the 2012 meeting between the two teams, the Titans defeated the Lions 44-41 in an overtime thriller at LP Field. Lions QB Shaun Hill connected on a last-second 46-yard Hail Mary pass to WR Titus Young to send the game into overtime, but Detroit was unable to convert on a 4th-and-1 play in the extra stanza as the Titans went on to win the game.

SERIES NOTES

- Detroit posted a 24-20 win November 7, 1971 in the first meeting between the two teams. After a Detroit fumble and interception gave the Broncos a 10-0 halftime lead, the Lions roared back in the second half, scoring on their first two possessions, including a Greg Landry-to-Earl McCullough 76-yard bomb which gave the Lions the lead.
- Denver's 31-27 Thanksgiving Day win in 1974 was the last Lions game played at Tiger Stadium, with the club moving into the Pontiac Silverdome the next season.
- In 1999, the Lions hosted the Broncos on another holiday, Christmas Day, with the Broncos claiming a 17-7 victory at the Silverdome.
- In Denver's first regular season trip to Ford Field November 4, 2007, the Lions crushed the Broncos 44-7, which marked the largest margin of victory, 37 points, by the Lions since they shutout the Jacksonville Jaguars 44-0 December 17, 1995. The 44 points were also the most by the team since they put up 55 points vs. Chicago November 27, 1997. The 37-point difference by Denver was the largest margin in a loss by the Broncos since the team lost at New Orleans 42-0 November 20, 1988.
- Detroit scored the second-most points in a road game by the club in a 45-10 win at Denver on October 30, 2011. It was the largest margin of victory on the road for the Lions since 1970. CB Chris Houston registered the fourth-longest interception return TD in team history with a 100-yard return.

SERIES NOTES

- In the teams' first meeting, the Lions defeated Oakland 28-14 on Thanksgiving Day (11/26/70). The win was the second of five straight wins by the Lions that propelled them to their first playoff berth since 1957. RB Mel Farr rushed 21 times for 121 yards, rallying Detroit from a 14-0 deficit.
- The Lions shut out the defending Super Bowl champion Raiders 16-0 on September 27, 1981. Detroit was the first team to shut out the Raiders in 15 years, as the Lions limited Oakland to only 131 yards in total offense. The Lions collected six sacks and DB Jimmy Allen intercepted his fourth pass in as many games. RB Billy Sims earned his second consecutive 100-yard rushing game (133 yards) while RB Dexter Bussey passed RB Altie Taylor as the club's all-time leading rusher at the time.
- In a Monday Night Football meeting on December 10, 1990, there were five Heisman Trophy winners on the field (Det: Barry Sanders and Andre Ware, Oak: Marcus Allen, Tim Brown and Bo Jackson). Sanders finished the game with 176 yards rushing, while Jackson led the Raiders with 129 yards on the ground.
- The Lions defeated the defending AFC Champion Oakland Raiders on November 2, 2003 at Ford Field, the Raiders' first trip to Detroit since 1990.
- DE Dewayne White was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance at Oakland (9/9/07) as he was a force in the fourth quarter when Detroit scored 16 unanswered points in the final 10:45 to come away with the victory. After the Lions took a 26-21 lead in the fourth quarter, White intercepted a pass on the ensuing Raiders drive and returned it 28 yards to set up a field goal to increase Detroit's lead to eight. On the first play of the next Oakland possession, White recorded a sack-fumble that was recovered by the Lions. The play helped set up a touchdown to seal the win.
- Trailing 27-14 with 7:47 left in the fourth quarter on December 18, 2011, the Lions completed the 13-point comeback and became the first team in NFL history to record four 13+-point comebacks in a season. The Lions game-winning drive started at the Raiders' 2-yard line with 2:14 left in the fourth quarter and was completed when QB Matthew Stafford hit WR Calvin Johnson on a 6-yard touchdown pass with 0:39 left to play.
- QB Matthew Stafford broke the Lions single-season touchdown record with his 33rd touchdown pass of the season at Oakland (12/18/11). He passed QB Scott Mitchell who threw for 32 in 1995. Stafford completed the 2011 season with 41 touchdown passes.

2014 DETROIT LIONS

DEFEND THE DEN

HISTORY BOOK

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE LIONS

Detroit welcomed the Lions in 1934, but it was not the area's first look at professional football. In 1920, the Detroit Heralds were a charter member of the American Professional Football Association, which was the original name of the present NFL, but the club folded after two years. The Detroit Panthers appeared in 1925, but also folded after two seasons. In 1928, the Detroit Wolverines were formed, but they failed after just one year.

In 1930, the then-10-year-old National Football League added a franchise from Portsmouth, Ohio, called the Spartans. After four seasons, the team was purchased for $7,952.08 by a group headed by Detroit radio executive George A. Richards and moved to the Motor City.

Playing in the University of Detroit Stadium before crowds that averaged 16,000, the new Detroit Lions won the NFL Championship in only their second year (1935). Under the leadership of Coach "Potsy" Clark and stars like Hall of Famer "Dutch" Clark, Ernie Caddel, George Christensen, "Ace" Gutowsky, Glenn Presnell and "Ox" Emerson, the early Lions established pro football in Detroit.

In 1940, Chicagoan Fred Mandel bought the club. Lions' stars of that era included Hall of Famers Bill Dudley and Alex Wojciechowicz, John Green, Byron "Whizzer" White, Frank Sinkwich and "Camp" Wilson. The team was sold eight years later to a group of local businessmen under the leadership of Edwin J. Anderson. The Detroit syndicate controlled the club until 1964, when William Clay Ford became the sole owner for a price of $4.5 million.

The Lions dominated the NFL in the 1950s with four division titles and three league championships. Under the direction of head coach Buddy Parker, the team won back-to-back world crowns in 1952-53, defeating Cleveland on both occasions. Stars of those powerful teams were Hall of Famers Bobby Layne, Jack Christiansen, Doak Walker and Lou Creekmur, as well as Les Bingaman, Cloyce Box, Leon Hart and Bob Hoernschemeyer. The Detroit-Cleveland battles of the era were classic confrontations between two giants of the blossoming NFL.

Since their last title in 1957 under the coaching of George Wilson, the Lions have continued searching for the league's top spot. Such performers as Joe Schmidt, Yale Lary, Dick "Night Train" Lane, John Henry Johnson and Lem Barney have been elected to the Hall of Fame. Outstanding players such as Wayne Walker, Mike Lucci, Nick Pietrosante, Roger Brown, Terry Barr, Mel Farr, Charlie Sanders, Dexter Bussey, Billy Sims and Doug English have also taken their places in the annals of pro football in Detroit.

In 1967, Schmidt began the first of six seasons as head coach of the Lions. His 1970 team made the playoffs, (first postseason trip since '57) but lost in the first round to Dallas by the baseball-like score of 5-0.

Prior to the 1975 season, the Lions moved into a new, domed stadium in Pontiac, Mich., a suburb located 30 miles north of Detroit. The Silverdome was, at one time, the world's largest air-supported domed structure and seated over 80,000 spectators under a fiberglass roof.

Monte Clark took control of all football operations as head coach in 1978. Under Clark's direction, the Lions narrowly missed playoff berths in 1980-81, before qualifying in 1982 — the Lions' first playoff appearance since 1970. Detroit captured the NFC Central Division crown in 1983, but stumbled in the first round of the playoffs with a 24-23 loss at San Francisco.

Darryl Rogers took over for Clark in 1985 but was replaced on an interim basis by his defensive coordinator Wayne Fontes in November 1988 after Rogers' teams had posted a combined 18-40 record. Fontes was officially named the franchise's 18th head coach on December 22, 1988.

The Lions "Restored the Roar" in 1991, winning a franchise-record 12 regular season games. Riding a tide of emotion after guard Mike Utley's paralyzing neck injury, Detroit defeated Dallas, 38-6, in the Lions' first Silverdome playoff contest. The victory gave the Lions a berth in the NFC Championship Game, where Detroit fell to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins.

The Lions finished 10-6 in 1993 en route to capturing the NFC Central Division title, and earned a Wild Card playoff bid in 1994. The 1995 Lions featured the NFL's top-rated offense and won their final seven games to earn a third straight playoff berth. Herman Moore set an NFL record with 123 catches, and he and Brett Perriman became the first teammates to each total over 100 catches in the same season. The receiver tandem also set the NFL record for most receiving yards in a season. Quarterback Scott Mitchell set team passing records for yards (4,338), completions (346) and touchdowns (32).

In 1996, running back Barry Sanders captured his third NFL rushing title with a dramatic 175-yard outburst on the final Monday night of the season in San Francisco. The Lions, however, finished a disappointing 5-11 in '96 and following the season, Fontes was replaced as head coach by former San Diego Chargers' head coach, Bobby Ross. Fontes, who was the head coach for more than eight full seasons, finished his career as the team's all-time leader among head coaches in both wins (67) and games coached (138).

Ross was named the 19th head coach in team history January 13, 1997, and led the club back to the playoffs in his inaugural year at the helm with a 9-7 record. That season, Sanders, who was inducted into the Hall of Fame in August 2004, continued his storybook career by becoming only the third player in league history to record 2,000 yards rushing in a single-season (2,053) and he reeled off an NFL record 14 consecutive 100-yard outings to finish the season.

The Lions closed out the 1990s reaching the playoffs for the sixth time in the 10-year span, which is a franchise record for playoff appearances during a decade. Detroit's playoff berth in 1999 marked the second time in Ross' first three years as head coach that he led the Lions into the postseason. The last Lions' head coach to accomplish that feat was Buddy Parker in 1952-53 during his second and third seasons at the helm.

After playing nine games into the 2000 season and compiling a 5-4 record, Ross abruptly resigned as head coach November 6 and was immediately replaced by Gary Moeller. Moeller guided the team to a 4-3 record over the last seven games, but narrowly missed the playoffs with a loss to the Chicago Bears in the season finale. Following the season, William Clay Ford named Matt Millen president and CEO, and he assumed control over team operations. On January 25, 2001 Gary Moeller was replaced as head coach by former San Francisco 49ers offensive coordinator Marty Mornhinweg.

On April 1, 2002, Detroit relocated the team's day-to-day operations into the new $36 million Headquarters and Training Facility in Allen Park. The new complex features outdoor and indoor practice fields, spacious training and meeting rooms and even the team's own broadcast studio.

A new era in Lions' history dawned as Ford Field, the team's $500 million downtown Detroit stadium, opened its doors in August 2002. The 65,000-seat stadium sparkled as its retro and innovative features glistened in the national spotlight as the premiere sports and entertainment complex. The Lions played the first game at Ford Field August 24, 2002 in a preseason tilt against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The inaugural regular season game was played between the Lions and the Green Bay Packers September 22, 2002.

In January 2003, Mornhinweg was fired after two seasons and former San Francisco 49ers Head Coach Steve Mariucci was tabbed the new Lions' head coach February 4.

For the first time since the Lions placed the Leaping Lion logo on the players' helmets in 1961, Detroit announced a major addition to the team's uniform on April 23, 2003. The Lions' classic uniform was enhanced with black trim on the logo, jerseys and pants, along with black shoes and black facemasks. In April 2005, the team introduced an alternate black jersey that would be worn through 2007.

On November 28, 2005, Steve Mariucci was relieved of his duties as head coach and defensive coordinator Dick Jauron was named interim head coach for the remaining five games.

In 2006, the Lions hired Rod Marinelli as the team's 24th head coach, a position he would hold through 2008.

In 2008, the Lions commemorated the franchise's 75th season in Detroit. Just a handful of NFL teams have been around as long as the Lions, a franchise that spans several generations of fans over the years. Detroit has called three different stadiums home with nearly 1,400 players seeing action on a given gameday and numerous coaches strolling the sideline. That history is rich with great players who have donned the uniform -- the Lions are one of only nine teams to have at least 18 Pro Football Hall of Fame players don their respective uniforms -- and with traditions like the "Honolulu Blue and Silver", the leaping Lion logo, the "Roaring 20's" and the team's annual Thanksgiving Tradition.

In 2009, for the first time in team history, the team entered the season with a new president, Tom Lewand, a new general manager, Martin Mayhew, and a new head coach, Jim Schwartz, hired January 16, 2009. In that same year, the Lions introduced a new logo and new brand, along with new team uniforms that features the first significant change to the Lions logo since it was introduced in 1961.

Schwartz labeled the 2011 season upon its conclusion as not a great year but an important one. Perhaps most notably, 2011 will be remembered for the "comeback" as the Lions returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1999 and set NFL records with four comeback wins of 13+ points, three comeback wins of 17+-points and two back-to-back 20+-point comeback wins. The Lions set several team records, including points (474) and yards (6,337), as well as individual records. Perhaps the two biggest stars leading the Lions in 2011 were QB Matthew Stafford, named AP Comeback Player of the Year, and All-Pro WR Calvin Johnson.

In 2012, the season was highlighted by Johnson's remarkable performance as he broke the NFL record for receiving yards in a single season. He finished with 122 receptions for 1,964 yards, breaking Jerry Rice's previous record of 1,848 yards in 1995. One season later in 2013, Stafford became the Lions all-time leader in career passing yards, breaking the previous record of 15,710 yards held by Hall of Fame QB Bobby Layne that stood for 55 years. Stafford reached this feat in only 55 career games, while Layne accomplished his mark in 97 games. He became the first Lions QB to reach 17,000 career passing yards.

After five seasons with the team (2009-13), Schwartz was dismissed as head coach on December 30, 2013.

A new era for Lions football began January 14, 2014 with the introduction of Jim Caldwell as the team's new head coach. Caldwell arrived in Detroit after leading the Indianapolis Colts to the Super Bowl as a head coach and won Super Bowls with both the Colts and the Baltimore Ravens.

On March 9, 2014, Lions Owner and Chairman William Clay Ford passed away at the age of 88. Mr. Ford purchased the team January 10, 1964 and owned the team for 50 years. With his passing, ownership of the Lions organization was passed to his wife, Martha Firestone Ford, as she succeeded her late husband as Owner and Chair of the Board for the franchise.

LIONS TALES

NAMING THE LIONS

When the team moved to Detroit from Portsmouth, Ohio in 1934, the organization settled on the name that would be uttered in Detroit and all around the league to this very day. After deciding to be known as the Lions, (staying consistent with the jungle cat image of the city's baseball team, the Tigers) two Lion cubs were given to the team by John Millen of the Detroit Zoo. Their names were "Grid" and "Iron." They accompanied the team to all of their games.

- The previous Detroit professional football teams were known as the Heralds, Panthers and the Wolverines.

HOMES OF THE DETROIT LIONS

In 2002, the Lions moved into their current home, Ford Field, in downtown Detroit. It marked the team's return to the city for the first time since 1974.

GRIDIRON HEROES

As the new pro football franchise took root in Detroit, owner G.A. Richards called for an original fight song to be written for the Lions. In the late 1930s, Wayne State University director of bands Graham T. Overgard, who was also the Lions' director of entertainment, penned the lyrics and music for "Gridiron Heroes–The Victory Song of the Detroit Lions."

- "Gridiron Heroes" has become one of the NFL's oldest and most popular songs today, and it is still played after each Lions' score.

PAPER LION

(Verse)
Hail the colors Blue and Silver let them wave.
Sing the song and cheer the Gridiron Heroes brave,
Fighting for fame, winning the game.
Dashing to victory as they go.

(Chorus)
Forward down the field,
A charging team that will not yield.
And when the Blue and Silver wave,
Stand and cheer the brave.
Rah, Rah, Rah!
Go hard win the game.
With honor you will keep your fame
Down the field and gain,
A Lion victory!

Filming of the George Plimpton book, "Paper Lion," began in early 1968. Alan Alda starred as Plimpton, the Sports Illustrated feature writer who masqueraded as a quarterback with the Lions during training camp. The world premiere was held Thursday, Oct. 3, 1968, at the Adams Theatre. The film introduced Lauren Hutton to the silver screen, and featured actual members of the Detroit Lions, including coach Joe Schmidt, Alex Karras, John Gordy, Mike Lucci, Pat Studstill and Roger Brown.

- The 2003 season marked the 40th anniversary of George Plimpton's visit to Lions' training camp when he began writing the original script for his book. Last year was also the 35th anniversary of the "Paper Lion" movie release.
- The Detroit Lions reunited most of the cast in 2003 with a "Paper Lion" reunion that was held in September. Forty players, including Plimpton and Karras, rekindled friendships that formed during their experience together in the 1960s.
- The reunion turned out to be the final chapter of Plimpton's life as he passed away days later (September 26, 2003) at the age of 76.

IN MEMORIAM

Several members of the Detroit Lions served in World War II and made the ultimate sacrifice for their country in the fight against fascism.

- Lt. Charles Behan was killed by Japanese machine gun fire on Okinawa, May 18, 1945.
- Sgt. Alex Ketzko was killed in France with Patch's Seventh Army, Dec. 23, 1944.
- Lt. Chet Wetterlund was killed flying a Navy Hellcat on night patrol along the New Jersey coast, Sept. 5, 1944.

DECADE OF DOMINANCE

Only a handful of great teams over the years in the NFL can claim the title of dynasty. One of those great teams was the Detroit Lions in the 1950s when the franchise captured world championships three times in a six-year span. Winning three championships in six years has occurred only nine times by eight different teams in the history of the NFL.

- Detroit won back-to-back titles in 1952 and 1953 and became the third team since the beginning of NFL Championship games in 1933 to win championships in consecutive years.
- Overall since '33, back-to-back titles has occurred just 15 times. Including 1954, the Lions appeared in the NFL title game four times in a six-year period.

DEEP IN THE HEART OF TEXAS

The Detroit Lions have a deep history of outstanding players who have Texas roots. Five players on the Lions' All-Time Team played college football in the Lone Star State, including : QB Bobby Layne (Texas), S Yale Lary (Texas A&M), RB Doak Walker (Southern Methodist), G Harley Sewell (Texas) and DT Doug English (Texas). Layne, Lary and Walker are all members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

- Joining those stars on the franchise's All-Time Team are Texas prepsters CB Dick "Night Train" Lane (Austin), who is also a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and RB Billy Sims (Hooks).
- Layne, Lane, Lary and Walker are all members of the Pride of the Lions charter class.

Texas roots go back even deeper with Layne and Walker who grew up only a few blocks apart in Dallas, Texas, and were friends as children. Both players started in the backfield at Highland Park High School in 1943. After stints in the military during World War II, Layne went to Texas University while Walker played for rival Southern Methodist University. The two were reunited when they joined the Lions in 1950.

- That connection has been revisited with the Lions drafting QB Matthew Stafford with the first overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft. Stafford also is from Highland Park, Texas and went to the same high school as Layne and Walker.
- He was joined in the first round of 2009 NFL Draft by another Texas prep star when the Lions drafted TE Brandon Pettigrew who is from Tyler, Texas.

The Lions' current roster with connections to the Lonestar State:

- Texas A&M: LS Don Muhlbach (Lufkin)
- Texas A&M Kingsville: DTJimmy Saddler-McQueen (Houston)
- Texas Tech: T LaAdrian Waddle (Columbus).
- Houston: WR Patrick Edwards (Hearne)
- Others Texas prepsters (High School hometown): QB James Franklin (Corinth), LB Travis Lewis (San Antonio), TE Brandon Pettigrew (Tyler),QB Matthew Stafford (Highland Park), C Travis Swanson (Kingwood)

THE ORIGINAL DETROIT LIONS OFFICES

Where were the first offices of the Detroit Lions located? Shortly after the club's move from Portsmouth, Ohio, Lions owner G.A. Richards, who also owned radio station WJR, set up Head Coach George "Potsy" Clark with a temporary office in room 2107 of the Fisher Building, in downtown Detroit.

- Since 2002, the Lions have operated out of the team's headquarters in Allen Park, with portions of the organization's business operations housed in the old Hudson's warehouse portion of Ford Field.

LIONS THANKSGIVING DAY TRADITION

It was, legend says, a typically colorful, probably chilly, November day in 1622 that Pilgrims and Native Americans celebrated the new world's bounty with a sumptuous feast.

They sat together at Plymouth Plantation (they spelled it Plimouth) in Massachusetts, gave thanks for the goodness set before them, then dined on pumpkin pie, sweet potatoes, maize, cranberry sauce, turkey and who knows what else.

Actually, fish was just as predominant a staple. And history books say pumpkin pie really debuted a year later. But regardless of the accuracy of the details, that's how Thanksgiving Day is seen by Americans -- except Detroiters.

They may have most of the same images as everyone else, but with a new twist that began in 1934.

That's when Detroiters and their outstate Michigan compatriots found themselves at the dawn of an unplanned behavior modification, courtesy of George A. "Dick" Richards, owner of the city's new entry in the National Football League: The Detroit Lions.

Larry Paladino, Lions Pride, 1993

Four generations of Detroiters have been a proud part of the American celebration of Thanksgiving. The relationship between Detroit and Thanksgiving dates back to 1934 when owner G.A. Richards scheduled a holiday contest between his first-year Lions and the Chicago Bears. Some 79 years later, fans throughout the State of Michigan have transformed an annual holiday event into the single greatest tradition in the history of American professional team sports. Indeed, if football is America's passion, Thanksgiving football is Detroit's passion.

The game was the brainchild of Richards, the first owner of the Detroit Lions. Richards had purchased the team in 1934 and moved the club from Portsmouth, Ohio to the Motor City. The Lions were the new kids in town and had taken a backseat to the baseball Tigers. Despite the fact the Lions had lost only one game prior to Thanksgiving in 1934, the season's largest crowd had been just 15,000.

The opponent in 1934 was the undefeated, defending World Champion Chicago Bears. The game would determine the champion of the Western Division. Richards had convinced the NBC Radio Network to carry the game coast-to-coast (94 stations) and additionally, an estimated 26,000 fans jammed into the University of Detroit Stadium while thousands more disappointed fans were turned away.

In 2009, the Lions Thanksgiving Day game against Green Bay marked the NFL's 75th anniversary of the first NFL national game broadcast. Graham McNamee was the announcer for NBC Radio for that historic game in 1934.

Despite two Ace Gutowsky touchdowns, the Bears won the inaugural game 19-16, but a classic was born. Since 1934, 73 games have been played with the Lions holding a 34-38-2 (.434) record in the series. And each game, in its own way, continues to bring back memories of Thanksgiving, not only to Lions fans, but to football fans across the nation.

The 2014 schedule features the Lions' 75th Thanksgiving Day Classic Thursday, November 27 at 12:30 p.m. ET vs. the Chicago Bears. This year's game marks the 16th meeting between Detroit and Chicago on Thanksgiving and the first time since 1999. The Bears hold the all-time edge in the series, 8-7-0, with the Lions taking the most recent matchup, 21-7, in 1999.

THANKSGIVING DAY FACTS

- The series began with a 19-16 loss to the Chicago Bears on November 29, 1934.
- A total of 74 games have been played with the Lions owning a 34-38-2 record in the annual holiday classic.
- More than 4 million fans have witnessed the Lions' 74 Thanksgiving Day games. The total attendance for the first 74 games is 4,179,015, an average of 56,473 fans per game.
- The Lions have played 24 different teams since the first Thanksgiving Day game. The most common opponent has been the Green Bay Packers, who the Lions played in 2013 for the 21st time in the Thanksgiving series. Their second most common opponent is the Chicago Bears (15 times).
- The two highest scoring games were a 44-40 Packers' win in 1986 and a 52-35 Detroit romp over Green Bay in 1951.
- The lowest scoring game was a 12-0 Philadelphia win in the 1968 "Mud Bowl."
- Eleven times in the series has a game been decided by three points or less, with the Lions' record standing at 4-5-2 in those meetings.
- The most lopsided game was a 45-3 Lions win over Pittsburgh in 1983.
- Seven shutouts have been recorded, but only one by the Lions (20-0 over the Bears in 1979).
- Three Thanksgiving Day games have gone into overtime. The first came in 1980 when the Bears' David Williams returned the opening kickoff of OT for a 95-yard touchdown. At the time, the game marked the shortest overtime game in NFL history (21 seconds). The second overtime game occurred in 1998 when the Lions defeated the Steelers 19-16 on a 42-yard Jason Hanson field goal in a game that will be remembered for the controversial coin toss before overtime began. The third occurred against the Houston Texans in 2012 in a game categorized by back-and-forth possessions and two missed field goals from each side, with Houston K Shayne Graham pulling out a 32-yarder for the win.

UNIFORM HISTORY

1934-1947: The first uniform donned by the Detroit Lions included a blue jersey with gleaming silver numerals, silver pants and a silver helmet. The shoes were black. The shade of blue used for the jersey became known as 'Honolulu' blue.

1948: Alvin 'Bo' McMillin joined the Lions after having success as a college coach at Indiana University. Soon after his arrival, McMillin changed the colors of the Lions' uniforms with the new colors resembling those of his Hoosier teams. The organization retained Honolulu blue and silver as their official colors.

- The jersey was scarlet with white numbers and the pants were white with a thin black stripe between two thin scarlet stripes. The helmets were black. All the players wore leather helmets that season due to the league's ban on plastic helmets.
- The team had a second, all-black uniform, which would be worn only for certain important games that McMillin particularly wished to win. The jersey was black with white numbers and the pants were black with a thin scarlet stripe between two thin white stripes.
- The two uniform sets ended up being worn in four different combinations (scarlet/white; black/black; scarlet/black; black/white).

1949: The Lions returned to wearing their Honolulu blue and silver uniforms at home but continued to wear combinations of the scarlet and white uniforms and the all-black uniforms on the road. The team changed the color of their helmet to blue and some players went back to wearing plastic helmets after the NFL lifted the ban on plastic headgear from the previous season.

1950-55: After wearing five different combinations of scarlet, white, black, silver and Honolulu blue in the previous two seasons, the Lions went back to wearing the traditional Honolulu blue and silver uniforms at home and on the road. For most of the 1950 season the team wore blue helmets but went back to wearing silver helmets for the 1951 season. During the early 50's, the NFL did not allow the Lions to wear silver helmets for night games because of their resemblance to the white ball under the night lights. They spray-painted their helmets blue for night games. Also, in 1951, the Lions wore the Detroit 250th Anniversary patch on their left sleeve. The patch was also worn by the Red Wings and Tigers.

1956: This was the first season that the Lions added their uniform numbers to the arm sleeves. Some players, like Lions Hall of Fame LT Lou Creekmur, were unhappy with the change – claiming that it made it harder to get away with holding.

1957-60: The Lions began wearing separate colored uniforms on the road on a permanent basis in 1957. The jersey was white with three blue stripes, one thick between two thin stripes, on the sleeves. The numbers were blue and the helmet and pants remained silver.

- They wore a white jersey on at least one other occasion in a previous season. On October 24, 1954, the Lions wore a similar white uniform in a game at San Francisco which they lost, 37-31, to the 49ers.

1961-67: In 1961, William Clay Ford's first season as the team's president, there were some significant uniform changes. The helmet remained silver with a grey facemask but now had the leaping-lion logo as well as two vertical blue stripes running from the back to the front. The pants also had two vertical blue stripes. Three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, were added to the arm sleeves of the home jersey. The away jersey remained the same.

- During the mid-60s, many players cut off part of the sleeves–giving appearance of only one or two stripes.

1968-69: 1968 was the first year the Lions had a white stripe between the two blue stripes on the helmet. The Lions and the rest of the league wore the NFL 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder in 1969.

1970-71: Last names were added to the back of the players' jerseys in silver lettering and white trim was added to the Leaping Lion logo on the helmet in 1970.

- For the second half of the 1971 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve on their home and away jerseys, in honor of wide receiver Chuck Hughes. Hughes died of a heart attack with 62 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter against the Chicago Bears on October 24, 1971.

1972: The Honolulu blue home jersey had white trim on the silver numerals and the white jerseys had silver trim on blue numerals for the first time in 1972. It was also the first year that there was a white, vertical stripe between the two blue stripes on the pants.

- The Lions tweaked the striping on the armsleeves for that season as well. The home jerseys had the one thick silver stripe between two thin white stripes and the away jersey had the one thick blue stripe between to thin silver stripes.

1973-75: Detroit changed back to the three silver stripes, one thick between two thin, on the sleeves of the Honolulu blue home jersey except now they had white trim. The away white jersey had three blue stripes, one thick between two thin, and they had silver trim.

- For the 1974 season, the Lions wore a black band, which was sewn over the thick stripe on the left sleeve of their home and away jerseys, in honor of Head Coach Don McCafferty who died of a heart attack during training camp.
- 1974 was also the season that the Lions started wearing white shoes.

1976-79: In 1976, the players' numbers were added to the back of the helmet.

1980-81: The Lions changed the dull silver stripes and trimming on their uniforms to a shimmering silver glitter. This only lasted two seasons because of complaints by other teams about the glare.

1982-97:

- 1982: The Lions changed the color of the numbers on their home jerseys, making them white with silver trim.
- 1983: The Lions wore a 50th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder. The Lions changed their facemask from silver/grey to Honolulu blue.
- 1991: The team wore a patch honoring Russ Thomas, a former player and General Manager for the Lions, who had recently passed away. For their final seven games (five regular season, two postseason), each player had a white circle decal with a blue number '60,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of RG Mike Utley. Utley suffered a spinal cord injury in a game against the Los Angeles Rams on November 17, 1991. The small NFL shield was added to the 'V' of the neck.

- 1992: They wore a black circle decal with a white number '65,' on the back right side of the helmet, in honor of LG Eric Andolsek, who was killed a few months prior to the season.
- 1993: The Lions wore a 60th Anniversary patch on their left shoulder.
- 1994: The Lions wore throwback jerseys for the 1994 season while the NFL was celebrating their 75th anniversary. This version of the uniform was intended to replicate the jersey worn by the Lions in 1935, which was the season that the team won their first world championship. Several players wore a black circle decal with a white number '50,' on the back right side of the helmet in honor of former Lions' LB Toby Caston.

1998: In what turned out to be Barry Sanders final season, the Lions changed their look on the road, wearing blue pants with a white stripe between two silver stripes.

1999: The Lions returned to wearing silver pants (with white stripe between two blue stripes) on the road.

2000-02: In 2000, the Lions moved the numbers that were on the sleeves up to the shoulders.

- The Lions wore a patch commemorating the first game at Ford Field September 22, 2002 against the Green Bay Packers.

2003: The home jersey has a thick silver stripe between two thin blue stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers are white with silver trim and outside black trim. The away jersey has a thick blue stripe between two thin silver stripes with white trim and two thin black stripes. The numbers on the away jersey are blue with silver trim and outside black trim.

- The helmet has one vertical white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes on the outside. The Leaping Lion has white trim and outside black trim and the facemask is black.
- The pants have one vertical thick white stripe between two blue stripes and two thin black stripes.

2005: The Lions introduced a new black alternate jersey featuring Honolulu Blue numbers with silver and white trim. The alternate jersey can be worn in as many as two regular season games and one preseason game.

2008: To commemorate the Detroit Lions 75th Season, the team wore a patch on the home and away jerseys. Additionally, the Lions wore the franchise's classic "throwback" uniform sans 75th Season patch for two games.

LIONS COMPREHENSIVE BRAND

On April 20, 2009, the Detroit Lions unveiled a new comprehensive brand that includes a new logo and new uniforms. As part of the new comprehensive brand, the Lions also introduced a new logotype and a new proprietary font, "NFL Lions." The new logotype is additional imagery that presents the Lions brand and will be featured in such prominent places as the endzone marking at Ford Field. The classic Honolulu blue, white and black colors remain unchanged.

HOME HONOLULU BLUE JERSEYS

- Numerals were customized specifically for the Lions uniform. They are Honolulu Blue, trimmed in silver and black.
- Above the new numerals is the new Lions logotype.
- On the collar, there are three trim lines of equal width, with two black trim lines outside a silver trim line.
- The sleeves are a new knit sleeve that features a wide silver trim, inside two smaller white trims and those all inside two black trims of equal width as the white trim. The new material is improved and more flexible for players. The trim is part of the knit-sleeve material, which was changed from the previous silk-screened sleeve.
- Numerals remain on the shoulders but are now in the customized Lions jersey numerals.

- Players' nameplates on the back of the uniform have slightly modified block letters from the previous block letter names on the back of the uniform.

ROAD WHITE JERSEYS

- The road jerseys are the traditional "road whites," with blue numerals trimmed in silver and black.
- On the road jerseys, the collar is in the same black and silver trim pattern as the home uniforms.
- Sleeves are of the same new knit-sleeve material that are on the new home uniforms. The trim on the sleeves includes a wide Honolulu blue trim, inside two smaller silver trims and those are all inside two black trims of equal width as the white trim.

HELMET

- The helmet now features the new logo on each side. It is the most significant change since the Lions logo was first placed on the team's helmet in 1961.
- The facemasks will remain black, but the new Lions logotype will be included on the front and the back of the helmet.
- At the top middle of the helmet, the striping pattern has been modified. Instead of a thick white stripe, two Honolulu blue stripes and a very thin black accent stripe, the helmet striping pattern is now a 5/8-inch Honolulu blue stripe, two 3/16-inch white stripes and two 3/16-inch black stripes. The striping pattern is the same striping pattern as the team's game pants.

PANTS AND GAME SOCKS

- The game pants will remain in the team's traditional silver. Like the striping pattern on the helmet, the pants vertical trim on the side of the legs are now a thick Honolulu blue stripe inside smaller white stripes, which are all inside black stripes that are the same width as the white stripes.
- The game socks, which are the same for the home and road uniforms, now have a 5/8-inch black stripe on the calf midline. The top half is Honolulu blue and the bottom half is white.

NIKE ELITE 51 UNIFORMS

2012: The NFL launched its new partenrship with Nike in April 2012, and now the Lions uniform not only features the NIKE logo but also features the new Nike Elite 51 technology. The collar changed from black and silver piping to a solid blue.

Designed and engineered from the inside out, the new Nike Elite 51 uniform focuses on creating a system where the baselayer, padding, jersey and pant work in concert. New innovations include integrating Nike Flywire Technology into the neckline to reduce weight and provide lockdown fit over pads, increasing sleeve articulation for better range of motion, and integrating new four-way stretch fabrication to provide a streamlined shrink-wrap fit.

The Nike Elite 51 key features:

- LIGHTER –The Nike jersey and pant, wet or dry are on average 20% lighter
- NIKE FLYWIRE - Eliminates layers, reduces weight, and provides lockdown fit
- ZONED MESH VENTILATION – Provides cooling zones for optimal thermoregulation
- ZONED STRENGTH - High tenacity, stretch material, for light weight lockdown strength.
- CUT FOR MOBILITY – Four-way stretch, hydrophobic materials enable range of motion wet or dry.
- STRETCH TWILL NUMBERS – Four-way stretch even on numbering system
- CUSTOMIZABLE BASELAYER PADDING – Nike Pro Hyperstrong baselayer with integrated lightweight, Deflex padding offering customizable flexible protection.
- DEFLEX PADDING - Lightweight, flexible impact protection integrated into top "hit zone" areas
- ALUMINUM D-RING BELT - Aircraft-grade aluminum D-ring belt reduces weight.

The uniform also features the Nike Vapor Game Sock – a highly innovative sock designed specifically for football. The knee-high design combines compression, Nike Pro inspired cushioning, mesh venting and structure precisely where needed.

2014: Detroit Lions players will wear a uniform patch during the 2014 season honoring late team owner William Clay Ford. Mr. Ford, who passed away March 9, purchased the Lions in November 1963 and officially became sole owner of the team January 10, 1964. Lions players will wear the uniform patch beginning with the regular season opener (September 8) on Monday Night Football at Ford Field when the Lions host the New York Giants.

FORD FIELD

Ford Field, home of the Detroit Lions, is one of the premiere sports and entertainment stadiums in the world, and that fact has been proven over and over again the past few years with such high-profile international events like Super Bowl XL.

Every event at Ford Field impacts the city of Detroit beyond the event itself inside the stadium. For example, by hosting the Super Bowl in Detroit, Ford Field stood as the centerpiece to an over $260 million economic impact on Metro Detroit.

And none of that would have been made possible without the vision and investment made by Lions Owner and Chairman William Clay Ford and the Ford family to not only construct a fine football stadium but an unrivaled sports and entertainment venue.

HOME FOR FOOTBALL

More than just a host site for the Super Bowl XL in 2006, few stadiums in the country hold a football schedule as aggressive as Ford Field. Football championships have been held at virtually every level ranging from youth football to the Super Bowl.

2013 FALL FOOTBALL EVENTS

- 10 Lions home games
- The Lions 74th Thanksgiving Day Classic
- 16th annual Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl
- MAC Football Championship
- MHSAA High School State Championship
- Detroit Public School Championship
- High School Catholic League Championship
- Annual Detroit PAL Football Championships

DETROIT BOWL GAME

The Detroit Lions announced in July 2013 that they have entered into a six-year partnership with the Big Ten Conference for a bowl game that will be played at Ford Field beginning in 2014.

SUPER BOWL XL RECAP

In 2006, Ford Field and Metro Detroit sparkled as the international sports community converged for the NFL's championship game.

"Much changed for the city of Detroit in 25 years since the Super Bowl was played there last," said former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue. "The energy of the city and the revival of downtown Detroit are evident. Detroit was a wonderful host and the hospitality exceeded expectations.

"From the media center and NFL headquarters at GM World Headquarters and the Renaissance Center, to the NFL Experience at Cobo Center, to the events at some of downtown's historic theatres, to the game at Ford Field, our fans, teams, business partners and media enjoyed their Super Bowl experience in Detroit."

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

The 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four reached new heights in 2009 year as Ford Field served as the host site for one of the year's biggest sporting events. It capped off two years of setting new standards for the men's basketball championships, which included attendance records for the Final Four, National Championship and preliminary rounds.

2009 MEN'S NCAA FINAL FOUR

The 2009 Men's Basketball Final Four finalized a process that included six years of planning with the ultimate goal of delivering a Final Four like no other, and the NCAA, Ford Field and the city of Detroit did just that. The cornerstone to the championship at Ford Field was the center stadium court and seating configuration that included customized risers and, for the first time, designated student sections. On the court, the Final Four featured

Michigan State defeating Connecticut, 82-73, and North Carolina defeating Villanova, 83-69 in the National Semifinals. In the National Championship, North Carolina ousted Michigan State, 89-72, to claim the NCAA title.

The weekend kicked off as the Final Four Friday drew a record crowd with nearly 30,000 in attendance. The games were expected to establish new records, and they delivered. The National Semifinals set an all-time record with 72,456 fans, and the National Championship upped that amount when it drew 72,992. Overall, 145,378 fans attended the Final Four, which also set a new record.

Although the primary focus of Final Four weekend was on the student athletes, the festivities surrounding the event livened up downtown Detroit. The ancillary events, like Hoops City, also drew record crowds over the five-day period. The NCAA and the Detroit Local Organizing Committee worked together on several community outreaches, which include a new legacy program. In the Detroit community, new early learning and literacy centers were opened. All of this was made possible by the vision of Ford Field and the NCAA to take this event to new levels. In the end, the Final Four generated an estimated $30-50 million impact on the city of Detroit.

2008 MIDWEST REGIONALS

Midwest Regionals, which included the Sweet Sixteen and Elite Eight rounds, were held March 28 and 30 in downtown Detroit for the first time as well, and both sessions set new preliminary rounds attendance records with 57,028 and 57,563 respectively for each session. A record of 114,591 was also established for both sessions. The excitement for the Midwest Regional was evident when 50,000 tickets were sold prior to the announcement of the 65-team tournament. Teams in the regional included Kansas (1 seed), Wisconsin (3), Davidson (10 seed) and Villanova (12 seed). Davidson upset Wisconsin,73-56, in the first game and Kansas defeated Villanova, 72-57, in the second game. The regional title was claimed by Kansas with a win over Davidson, 59-57, in a game that came down to the final seconds. The previous attendance record for a single Regional game was 42,519. That mark was set at the Michigan State vs. Kentucky game in St. Louis' Trans World Dome in 1999.

NCAA HOCKEY

In 2010 Ford Field elevated collegiate hockey to an all-time level when it hosted the NCAA Men's 2010 Frozen Four. In an area that shows great support annually for college hockey and several Division I programs in the state of Michigan, Ford Field, which was the largest stadium ever to host the Frozen Four, proved the ideal venue to provide access to more fans of college hockey's version of the Final Four than ever before.

For both the National Semifinals and National Championship, the crowds that gathered set new NCAA records and new world records for an indoor hockey game. Overall, approximately 19,000 fans experienced the Frozen Four weekend than ever before. The first night of the Frozen Four, the National Semifinals, commenced as Ford field established a new attendance record of 34,954. Wisconsin defeated Rochester Institute of Technology 8-1 and Boston College upended Miami 7-1. In the National Championship game, Boston College claimed the NCAA title by shutting out Wisconsin in front of a record crowd of 37,592. In total, 72,546 fans watched the Frozen Four at Ford Field.

A LOOK AT THE PAST

On November 16, 1999, a new era in Detroit Lions' history began when the team officially launched the construction of its new downtown Detroit stadium. In 2002, the Lions and the city of Detroit unveiled one of the most impressive sports and entertainment venues ever built.

The Lions' downtown home is an incomparable 64,500-seat facility that includes a giant glass wall, revealing the picturesque Detroit skyline, and the old Hudson's Warehouse, originally built in 1920. The massive project encompasses a total of 1.85 million square feet of development.

The old Hudson's Warehouse, a major cornerstone of Ford Field, houses most of the stadium luxury seats, pressbox, restaurants, food courts, lounge areas, banquet facilities, entertainment venues and commercial space. The inclusion of the warehouse into the stadium project allows the sightlines at Ford Field to be among the very best in the NFL. In fact, even the locker room facilities have been built in the basement of the seven-story historic Detroit structure.

Detroit played its first home preseason game at Ford Field Saturday, August 24, 2003 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. Almost one month later, the Lions celebrated the inaugural regular season game at Ford Field Sunday, September 22 when they played host to their long-time divisional rival, the Green Bay Packers. The 2002 home opener marked the return of the Lions to downtown Detroit for the first time since 1974.

Following this grand opening event and the Lions' first regular season game, Ford Field's first concert was October headlined by the rock-and-roll legends, the Rolling Stones. At Super Bowl XL, the Rolling Stones returned to headline the NFL's halftime show.

Not only has Ford Field impressed the NFL owners, but it has also made an impact on the NCAA to name the stadium the site of the 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four. Ford Field also hosted Men's Basketball Midwest Regional Finals in 2008. In addition to the men's basketball championship, the NCAA returned in 2010 as Ford Field presented the Men's Hockey Frozen Four.

In April 2007, Ford Field expanded its portfolio when it hosted one of the biggest sports entertainment events of the year when the WWE's Wrestlemania extravaganza rolled into town. The event set a Ford Field record with 80,103 in attendance and it was the second-highest tally in the 23-year history of the event behind Wrestlemania III (93,173) held at the Pontiac Silverdome. Wrestlemania 23 at Ford Field included fans from 23 different countries, including all 50 states and nine Canadian provinces. Wrestlemania was the highest grossing one-day live event in WWE history, and holding the event at Ford Field helped pump an estimated $25 million into the local economy.

Besides events like the NCAA Final Four, Midwest Regionals and Frozen Four, Ford Field has also hosted prominent motorsports events, including the Monster Jam monster truck series for the past three years and the AMA Amp'd Mobile Supercross series.

Ford Field began as a construction phenomenon on multiple fronts, and is now a crowning jewel of new stadiums in the NFL and Detroit's downtown entertainment district. The stadium's impact will continue to grow as Ford Field plays host to football games, sports and entertainment events, tradeshows and concerts.
